HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

FAITH RINGGOLD

Doctor of Humane Letters

Faith Ringgold—artist, author, activist, icon—your creative powers have broken so many boundaries in moving and redemptive ways. At 90 years old, your prolific career has spanned 16 different media and more than half a century.

Born in 1930, you grew up amid the cultural offerings of the Harlem Renaissance. You cultivated your love of storytelling sitting on the roof and listening to stories told by your exciting and festive neighbors.

You learned to sew and work with fabrics from your mother, a fashion designer. With her encouragement, the material arts became your passion. When you enrolled at the City College of New York in 1950, you transformed that passion into a career. The liberal arts department denied your application because you are a woman, so you studied art education. You have shared that you appreciated your education, but it also taught you what was missing: the curricula included nothing on African and African American art. Undeterred, you pursued that education yourself.

You earned your bachelor's degree in Fine Art and Education in 1955 and began your career embracing many roles: mother, teacher, student, artist. You cared for your children, worked as an arts educator in public schools, earned your master's degree, and began a series of paintings to illuminate the civil rights movement from a female perspective. It was called "American People."

You gained acclaim for your African-style masks, political posters and quilts. You have written and illustrated beloved children's books and have advanced racial integration in the New York art world. You penned a memoir, "We Flew over the Bridge," in 1995. In recent years you have innovated in yet another new medium—inventing Quiltudoku, a game app that elevates Sudoku through color and pattern.

Your innovative work graces the world's most renowned art institutions. You have been recognized with more than 80 awards, including a National Endowment for the Arts Award, a Guggenheim Fellowship for painting and an NAACP Image Award. Your children's book "Tar Beach" is a Caldecott Honor Book and received the Coretta Scott King Award for illustration.

In a 2020 New York Times interview, you said: "I'm always thinking about what can be better." Through your artwork, you have sought to change the world for the better, and you have triumphed.

Faith Ringgold, your talent is extraordinary, and our university is proud to honor you for both your creativity and the change you have led. With the authority vested in me by the Ancient Royal Charter of The College of William and Mary in Virginia, I now present you with a Doctor of Humane Letters, Honoris Causa.

ANTHONY M. KENNEDY

Doctor of Laws

Anthony McLeod Kennedy, the course of your career is long and renowned. The 104th justice to serve on the United States Supreme Court, you have promoted civic education in this nation and abroad and advanced the rule of law to uphold equality and human rights.

Born in Sacramento, California, you learned about local civic affairs from your attorney father and teacher mother. Your interest in government ignited at an early age, and you served as a page in the California State Senate. While an undergraduate student at Stanford University, you discovered the field of constitutional law—a passion that would define your career. You spent your senior year abroad at the London School of Economics and went on to earn your Bachelor of Laws from Harvard Law School. You served in the California Army National Guard, and launched your career in private practice before becoming a professor of Constitutional Law at the McGeorge School of Law, University of the Pacific.

In 1975, you were appointed to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit by President Gerald Ford. Then in 1988, President Reagan nominated you as an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, garnering unanimous confirmation from the United States Senate. You served on the Court for three decades until your retirement. You assumed senior status as a federal judge in 2018.

During your tenure on the Court, yours was often the pivotal vote, alongside fellow Reagan nominee and former William & Mary Chancellor Sandra Day O'Connor. Among the consequential opinions you handed down, you strengthened free expression and authored the majority opinion to legalize same-sex marriage nationwide.

On a divided Court, you were known for your moderating presence. Your thoughtful and gracious manner smoothed deliberations. Upon your retirement, Chief Justice John Roberts remarked: "His jurisprudence prominently features an abiding commitment to liberty and the personal dignity of every person. Justice Kennedy taught collegiality and civil discourse by example."

Your unwavering commitment to the Constitution is well noted. You embrace the role of teacher, calling the next generation into a deeper understanding of the ideals of democracy. Throughout your storied career, you have exemplified the role of the judiciary in a democracy and the importance of neutrality in jurisprudence.

Anthony Kennedy, your steadfast service to democratic principles has sustained our country through many trials. It is most fitting that the Alma Mater of the Nation should honor you. With the authority vested in me by the Ancient Royal Charter of The College of William and Mary in Virginia, I now present you with a Doctor of Laws, Honoris Causa.

THE CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES

In this, the 328th year of its founding, William & Mary will award approximately 2,639 degrees. They include some 1,620 undergraduate degrees and 1,019 graduate degrees.

Of the undergraduate degrees, approximately 773 are the Bachelor of Arts; 665 are the Bachelor of Science; 177 are the Bachelor of Business Administration; and 5 are the Bachelor of Education.

Of the graduate degrees, approximately 336 are the Master of Business Administration; 73 are the Master of Accounting; 28 are the Master of Arts; 62 are the Master of Education; 158 are the Master of Science; 65 are the Master of Arts in Education; 3 are the Master of Public Policy; 11 are the Educational Specialist; 40 are the Master of Laws; 182 are the Juris Doctor; 9 are the Doctor of Education; and 52 are the Doctor of Philosophy.

PRIZES AND AWARDS

The Lord Botetourt Medal is awarded annually to the graduating senior who has attained the greatest distinction in scholarship.

The James Frederic Carr Memorial Cup is awarded to a graduating senior on the basis of character, scholarship and leadership. It was established as a memorial to James Frederic Carr, a former William & Mary student who served in World War I and lost his life before he could return to William & Mary.

The Thatcher Prize for Excellence in Graduate and Professional Study is given to an outstanding graduate student completing an advanced degree in Arts and Sciences, Education, Marine Science, Business Administration or Law, and is awarded on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership and service. Initiated in 2000 by William & Mary, the award honors Margaret, The Lady Thatcher, 21st Chancellor of the University, in recognition of her seven-year term of service.

The Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award, given in the form of a medallion, is in recognition of influence for good, taking into consideration such characteristics of heart, mind and conduct as evince a spirit of love and helpfulness to others. It is awarded each year to two members of the student body and to a third person possessing the characteristics specified by the donors.

The Thomas Ashley Graves, Jr., Award is presented annually to a member of the faculty in recognition of sustained excellence in teaching. To honor Thomas A. Graves, Jr., 23rd President of William & Mary, the award has been endowed by alumni and friends of the former president.

The Charles Joseph Duke, Jr., and Virginia Welton Duke Award is awarded annually to an outstanding William & Mary employee or one contracted to provide auxiliary services. It has been endowed by Charles Bryan Duke and Ann Evans Duke in memory of Charles and Virginia Duke for their years of distinguished and loving service to The College of William and Mary in Virginia.

THE COLLEGE AND ROYAL COATS OF ARMS

William & Mary was the first American institution of higher learning to be granted a royal coat of arms issued on May 14, 1694 by the College of Arms in London. The College Coat of Arms depicts college buildings in silver on a green field with a golden sun against a blue sky. The seal does not represent actual William & Mary buildings because the coat of arms was issued before construction began on what is now called the Wren Building. The royal charter calls for a "common seal" for William & Mary and that original seal included the coat of arms in the center.

The two smaller shields represent the royal arms of the House of Stuart, from which Mary II was descended, and of King William III (of England) & II (of Scotland). The escutcheon depicting a golden lion on a blue field appears on King William's coat of arms as a reference to the royal house of Nassau to which William belonged.

THE COLLEGE MACE

The College Mace is carried by the president of the Student Assembly at official William & Mary convocations as a symbol of the authority vested in the rector of the university and delegated to the president of the university. This year, the College Mace will be carried and displayed at the four undergraduate ceremonies.

Designed and handcrafted by the Gorham Company of New York, the mace is made of sterling silver. It was given to William & Mary by alumni and students at Charter Day on February 8, 1923, upon the 230th anniversary of the granting of the Royal Charter.

The mace is four feet long. Its 12 sections commemorate many of the people and events in William & Mary's 300-year history. They include: an American eagle, symbolizing liberty and freedom of thought; a sphere, symbolizing unity; the College Coat of Arms; arms representing the early chancellors of the university; the seven seals of Colonial Virginia; full-size reproductions of three William & Mary medals; the names of 38 distinguished alumni; the earth, with the continents outlined; the names of the colonial governors of Virginia; Indian head emblems commemorating the Indian School, one of the three William & Mary departments before the American Revolution; and the names of the presidents of William & Mary.

When not in use, the mace is placed in the Earl Gregg Swem Library under the care of the university archivist.

THE MARISCHAL MACE

The Marischal Mace is carried by an elected representative of the Graduate Council of the Student Assembly at official William & Mary convocations. This year, the Marischal Mace will be carried and displayed at the two graduate student ceremonies.

A gift from the University of Aberdeen in honor of William & Mary's 300th anniversary, the mace was presented by the University's Principal and Vice Chancellor, Professor John Maxwell Irvine. The University of Aberdeen is comprised of King's College (founded 1495) and Marischal College (founded 1593), where William & Mary's founder and first president, the Reverend James Blair, was educated.

The mace, a silver replica of one of the two maces carried by Sacrists at traditional university ceremonies in Scotland, was first carried in academic procession at the Charter Day ceremony in February 1993.

When not in use, the mace is placed in the Earl Gregg Swem Library under the care of the University Archivist.

WILLIAM & MARY / UNIVERSITY OF ST ANDREWS JOINT DEGREE PROGRAMME COAT OF ARMS

This Coat of Arms was officially recognized in 2015 by the Scottish Heraldry Board. It was designed by two Joint Degree students, Abigail

Gomulkiewicz and Andrew Hashim (both Class of 2015) to be a unifying symbol of the joint venture. The Coat of Arms presents William & Mary's griffin and St Andrews' dragon together holding up the book of knowledge; the third golden key rising from the other two represents the Joint Programme as a third entity growing from the two distinct universities. The Latin motto means "seek knowledge constantly."

BADGES AND CHAINS OF OFFICE

The Chancellor's Badge and Chain of Office were presented to William & Mary by the Society of the Alumni at the investiture of Chancellor Warren E. Burger at Charter Day on February 7, 1987.

The Rector's Badge and Chain of Office were presented to the university by Anne Dobie Peebles '44 upon her retirement from the Board of Visitors. She served 13 years on the Board, the last three as rector.

The President's badge and chain of office were first worn by President W. Taylor Reveley III in 2018. The badge and chain of office were gifts from President Reveley to the university in memory and honor of those William & Mary presidents who preceded him and those who will follow.

Each piece was handcrafted by the firm of Thomas Fattorini, Ltd. of Birmingham, England, and features an enameled depiction of the coat-of-arms of William & Mary, issued in 1694 by the College of Arms (heraldry) in London as specified in the royal charter. The President's badge is crafted of silver and gold; the Chancellor's badge of silver and enamel and the Rector's of silver and gold.

When not in use, the Badges and Chains of Office are placed in the Earl Gregg Swem Library under the care of the university archivist.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The ceremonial robes worn in the academic procession speak by their shapes and their colors of the breadth and intricate structure of the academic world. Against the basic black of caps and gowns worn by the students receiving bachelor's and master's degrees, the colors of diverse universities and academic fields stand in high relief. The gowns themselves are of different shape—note especially the sleeves—for bachelors, masters, and doctors. The typical American cap is flat with a tassel draped over the front edge, but some universities in the United States and abroad use caps that are softly peaked or round and stiff. Hoods, too, differ in shape for each of the traditional degrees. The lining of the hood announces by its color the university conferring the degree—note the green, gold and silver of William & Mary. William & Mary's distinctive green doctoral robe was first worn by graduates at Commencement 2002. With an open front in the tradition of the British universities, the piping on the chevrons identifies the degree conferred (dark blue for the Ph.D., light blue for the Ed.D. and purple for the J.D.). The edge of all of the hoods as well as the chevrons and piping on academic gowns mark the field of study according to the following color scheme:

 Agriculture	 Medicine
 Arts, Letters, Humanities	 Music
 Commerce, Business	 Oratory
 Economics	 Philosophy
 Education	 Physical Education
 Engineering	 Public Administration
 Fine Arts, Architecture	 Science
 Journalism	 Social Work
 Law	 Theology
 Library Science

STUDENT SPEAKERS

Undergraduate Ceremonies

Undergraduate speaker, Divya Dureja, is graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in Religious Studies and a minor in Biochemistry. Divya has spent her time at William & Mary engaging in community service through her involvement as Camp Kesem William & Mary's Director. She has a passion for creating inclusive communities on campus through her work as a resident assistant and leadership roles in William & Mary's first all-female a cappella group, the Intonations. A recipient of the Freeman Fellowship in Malaysia and an intern for a Religious Studies research project in Indonesia, Divya has chased opportunities to expand her worldview and has maintained a fervent curiosity about new social justice issues. She is honored to have this opportunity to reflect on the hardships of the past year and the ways in which William & Mary students have united to overcome these challenges. Divya is originally from Fox River Grove, Illinois and is the proud daughter of Sudhir and Sharmishta Dureja.

Mason School of Business Graduate Ceremony

Graduate Business student speaker, Meghan Gallagher, is from Rockville, MD. She is graduating with a Master of Business Administration from William & Mary's online program, during which she was inducted into Beta Gamma Sigma, the International Business Honor Society. After receiving her undergraduate degree in Government and Politics, with minors in French and Spanish, from the University of Maryland, Meghan has worked primarily in the government contracting industry. She is currently employed as a Senior Technical Editor and Management Writer for General Dynamics Information Technology as she works to deepen her knowledge of proposal development. Meghan has devoted much of her free time to supporting the nonprofit the Daughters of the American Revolution. With this nonprofit, Meghan has served as the Treasurer to a chapter of over one hundred members and has participated in service-oriented programs within her community as she works to promote historic preservation, education and patriotism. In addition to her academic, professional and volunteer goals, Meghan is on a mission to visit every National Park in the US! Most recently, she visited all five parks in Utah, her favorite of which was Zion. Meghan is deeply honored to speak before the graduating class today and wishes her fellow students well as they begin the next step in their journeys!

A&S, Education, Law, Marine Science Graduate Ceremony

Graduate Student speaker, Leila Khalid Warraich, is graduating with a Doctor of Philosophy in Counselor Education and Supervision from the William & Mary School of Education. During her time at William & Mary, Leila served as the Doctoral Co-Director of the New Horizons Family Counseling Center under the Flanagan Counselor Education Clinic. New Horizons is a grant-supported collaboration between the local school districts and the School of Education to provide free family counseling to the surrounding counties. Leila not only helped with the day-to-day operations of the clinic but also served as a supervisor for masters interns and a family counselor as well. Leila has also been involved in research, publication and presentations at both the local and national levels related to supporting marginalized clients in counseling. Additionally, Leila is a proud Holmes Scholar. She has served as a lead reviewer for the William and Mary Educational Review as well as the Co-Director for the Graduate Student Writing Retreat. Leila calls multiple places her home including College Station, TX, Gujarat, Pakistan and Doha, Qatar and she is the proud daughter of Khalid and Riffat Warraich.

SENIOR CLASS GIFT

The 2021 Senior Class Gift supports various aspects of William & Mary. Senior class members either make an unrestricted gift for William & Mary's most pressing needs, or designate their gift to different areas including academic departments, student organizations and athletics. A marker commemorating the Class of 2021's gift will be placed in the brick sidewalk near the Sunken Garden in the area known as the "Senior Walk." William & Mary acknowledges with deep gratitude this gift from the Class of 2021.

ALMA MATER

Hark the students' voices swelling,
Strong and true and clear
Alma Mater's love they're telling Ringing far and near.

CHORUS
William & Mary loved of old
Hark upon the gale,
Hear the thunder of our chorus
Alma Mater hail!

All thy sons are faithful to thee
Through their college days;
Singing loud from hearts that love thee
Alma Mater's praise.

Iron shod or golden sandaled
Shall the years go by -
Still our hearts shall weave about thee
Love that cannot die.

God, our Father, hear our voices
Listen to our cry
Bless the college of our fathers
Let her never die.

- James Southall Wilson (1902)

The Years in Review

2017 - 2021

William & Mary celebrated the 50th Anniversary of African Americans in Residence

Beginning in August 2017, William & Mary commemorated the 50th anniversary of the first African American students in residence — Lynn Briley, Janet Brown Strafer and Karen Ely (class of 1971) — with a year long series of special events, guest speakers and performances, beginning with Convocation weekend and continuing through Commencement in May 2018.

The theme was Sankofa, which, in the Akan Language of West Africa, reflects the idea that “it is not taboo to go back and fetch what you forgot.” Our commemoration slogan, “Building on the Legacy,” derives from the Sankofa teaching that we must know and understand our past in order to move forward and make the most of our future.

100 Years of Women

Beginning in 2018, William & Mary launched a yearlong celebration of the 100th anniversary of coeducation at the university. Over the course of the academic year, the university hosted a series of guest speakers, performances and special events including the first-ever W&M Women’s Weekend for alumnae.

In the fall of 1918, 24 women were admitted as undergraduate students at the university. In 2018, women made up 45 percent of university faculty and 58 percent of the student body. During 2018-19, we celebrated the accomplishments of the 55,000+ alumnae, and the many women students, faculty and staff of William & Mary.

Inauguration of Katherine A. Rowe

Katherine A. Rowe was inaugurated as William & Mary's 28th president — and first woman president — during the university's annual Charter Day ceremony on February 8, 2019. More than 4,000 people attended the event in Kaplan Arena. The ceremony also featured the re-investiture of Robert M. Gates '65, L.H.D. '98 as chancellor.

At the ceremony, more than 140 academic institutions and learned societies were represented by delegates from across the country and beyond. Henry Hart, Mildred and J.B. Hickman Professor of English and Humanities, then the poet laureate of Virginia, delivered a poem he wrote to mark the inauguration. Virginia Supreme Court Justice Bill Mims '79 brought tidings from the Commonwealth. Three former W&M presidents were also in attendance: Taylor Reveley, Timothy Sullivan and Paul Verkuil.

William & Mary responds to COVID-19

As the nation responded to the COVID-19 pandemic in early 2020, William & Mary began taking steps to slow the spread of the virus and safeguard the health of the campus community. In March, the university switched to remote learning, canceled events and asked employees to work remotely.

In-person classes were offered again in the fall, along with online and other remote modes of delivery to allow flexibility for students and faculty. A COVID Response Team and Public Health Advisory Team were established, along with case management and quarantine housing systems. All members of the campus community were asked to agree to a Healthy Together Community Commitment to follow specific health and safety protocols, including physical distancing and mask wearing.

The quick pivot required a great deal of creativity, flexibility and innovation from the university community as a whole.

Throughout the pandemic, W&M faced unprecedented trials, experiencing both challenges and successes all while finding ways to support one another and the larger community.

Institute for Integrative Conservation opens, construction projects move forward

W&M's Institute for Integrative Conservation, funded by a $19.3 million gift from an anonymous alumna, opened in January 2020. The center is at the forefront of transformational research to protect ecosystems and safeguard world populations. It seeks to cultivate leaders to drive policy, advance advocacy and inspire action at the local, national and international levels. In its innovative programming, academia combines forces with public, private and nonprofit sectors to advance solutions to the world's most pressing conservation and sustainability challenges.

Also in 2020, work began or moved forward on several campus construction projects, including the Reveley Garden, the Sadler Center expansion and W&M's performing arts facilities. Additionally, a design concept for "Hearth:

Memorial to the Enslaved" was approved. When completed in 2022, the memorial and surrounding area will reimagine the Jamestown Road pathway to the university's Historic Campus, positioned just across the street from the Office of Undergraduate Admission.

New deans take the helm

In fall 2020, new students began classes and returning students adjusted to a year unlike any other. Three new faces joined the William & Mary community: new deans of Arts & Sciences, the Law School and the School of Education. After nationwide searches and appointments by the Board of Visitors, Maria Donoghue Velleca, a distinguished neuroscientist, joined William & Mary as dean of the Faculty of Arts & Sciences; A. Benjamin Spencer, a nationally renowned civil procedure and federal courts expert, stepped in to lead W&M Law School; and Robert C. Knoepfle, a longtime educator and noted scholar on educational finance innovation, took the reins as dean of the School of Education. A nationwide search also began in the fall to fill the position of dean for the Virginia Institute of Marine Science after Dean John T. Wells' retirement at the end of the academic year.

Veteran-to-Executive Transition program established

Thanks to a $10-million gift from an anonymous alumna who serves as a trustee of the William & Mary Foundation, the university is developing a cutting-edge Veteran-to-Executive Transition program (W&M VET) that will prepare veterans to excel in civilian leadership roles. W&M VET will build on William & Mary's interdisciplinary strengths, its online degree offerings and its increasingly robust active-duty and veterans programs to help those who serve our country transition successfully into the civilian workforce. The program will launch its first certificate program – "Flourishing in Life Transitions" – in May 2021.

Colonial Williamsburg joins William & Mary to research, relocate, interpret 18th-century Bray School

A small white building that sits tucked away on the William & Mary campus once held an 18th-century school dedicated to the religious education of enslaved and free Black children, researchers announced in February. William & Mary and Colonial Williamsburg have forged a partnership regarding the future use of the building, now known as the Bray-Diggs House, likely the oldest extant building in the U.S. dedicated to the education of Black children. The agreement calls for relocation of the structure to Colonial Williamsburg's Historic Area, where it would become the 89th original structure restored by the foundation. The partnership also establishes the Williamsburg Bray School Initiative, a joint venture of the two institutions to use the Bray School as a focal point for research, scholarship and dialogue regarding the interconnected, often troubled, legacy of race, religion and education in Williamsburg and in America.

W&M joins President Katherine A. Rowe for virtual conversations

Starting in 2020, William & Mary President Katherine A. Rowe hosted a series of virtual Community Conversations to provide updates on the university's response to COVID-19 and to hear from community leaders about different aspects of the pandemic and its effects. In February 2021, Rowe welcomed Director of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases Dr. Anthony Fauci for a conversation. Rowe, and Student Assembly President Anthony "AJ" Joseph '21 spoke with Fauci about vaccines and the university's role in helping dispel misinformation about public health matters related to the pandemic, among other things.

W&M begins centennial celebration of Asians and Asian Americans

A century ago, Pu-Kao Chen '23 (pictured to the right), traveled from Shanghai, China, to enroll at William & Mary, becoming the university's first Asian student and opening the door for hundreds of Asian and Asian American students, faculty and staff to follow — and create their own firsts — over the next 100 years. William & Mary is marking that anniversary with a multi-year commemoration, beginning in the spring of 2021 and culminating with the 2022 Commencement ceremony. The Asian Centennial will celebrate all those at W&M, past and present, who identify as Asian or of Asian ancestry, including those from Southwest Asia – often referred to as the Middle East.

W&M concludes successful For the Bold campaign, launches athletics campaign

In June 2020, W&M completed its For the Bold campaign, raising a total of $1.04 billion. The university successfully reached its top three goals for the campaign — strengthen alumni engagement, increase alumni participation and raise $1 billion. The campaign led to wide-ranging transformations across the university and new opportunities and experiences for generations of students, faculty, alumni and staff.

Throughout For the Bold, gifts from donors funded more than $303 million in scholarships for students, the top priority for the campaign.

Building on the success of For the Bold, the university launched a campaign for William & Mary Athletics in March 2021. Titled All In, the campaign seeks to galvanize the entire W&M community to shape a bolder future in which all student-athletes can perform at their highest level and reach their fullest potential. The goals of the campaign are to engage and build community, increase annual giving and raise $55 million.

Traditions

Convocation

Continuing a tradition that was reinaugurated during William & Mary's tercentenary in 1993, William & Mary begins each fall with Opening Convocation to celebrate the start of the academic session.

On the first day of classes, faculty, staff and students gather at the Sir Christopher Wren Building to signify the beginning of the academic year and to officially welcome all of our entering William & Mary students.

At the conclusion of the ceremony and the tolling of the Wren Building bell, the president leads the new students in a special procession from the front lawn to the Wren portico, where the new students are warmly welcomed by current members of the faculty, staff and student body waiting in the Wren courtyard. A festive campus-wide picnic dinner with live entertainment follows for the entire campus community.

In 2020, the university welcomed its newest students via a virtual ceremony due to COVID-19 protocols.

The Raft Debate

Some William & Mary traditions are patently strange (just the way we like them). Consider the Raft Debate, a rhetorical royal rumble between faculty members representing different academic disciplines at the university. Here's the set-up: Four survivors of a shipwreck are stranded on a deserted island with only one tiny raft. Each must convince the audience that his or hers is the most worthy discipline to bring back to civilization. What follows are wildly theatrical appeals by otherwise normal professors and lots of semi-civil name-calling. The audience picks the winner by the volume of its applause.

The Raft Debate was canceled in 2020 due to COVID-19.

Homecoming

Every October, William & Mary alumni flock to Williamsburg to celebrate and reconnect with classmates and their alma mater. Members of the Tribe, young and old, enjoy four days of parades, academic forums, parties, football and many other events.

Homecoming was held virtually in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. During the weekend, alumni participated in class reunion Zooms and special programs.

Yule Log Ceremony

Right before students take off for Winter Break is the Yule Log ceremony. On a chilly Williamsburg night, the whole student body squeezes into the Wren Courtyard, where festive “cressets” (wood-burning torches) warm the crowd. The students are treated to live holiday music and student speeches explaining a diverse range of holiday traditions. The climax is when the university president takes the stage to lead the audience in a rousing celebration. Afterward, frozen students pile into the Great Hall to toss ceremonial sprigs of holly into the Yule Log fire for good luck. Then it's hot cider and sugar cookies for everybody.

In 2020, the Yule Log ceremony was reimagined virtually. The ceremony included the most cherished parts of Yule Log: storytelling, singing and tossing holly into the hearth.

Charter Day

February brings the annual celebration of William & Mary's Royal Charter — think "Happy Birthday William & Mary." Charter Day features speakers of note, along with the distribution of honorary degrees and prestigious awards to students, faculty and alumni. In recent years, the weekend has also included a comedy show, sponsored by Alma Mater Productions and the Student Assembly, and the first ever Fire & Ice block party.

In 2021, the Charter Day ceremony was held virtually. Honorary degrees were awarded to Jayne Weeks Barnard, James Cutler Professor of Law, emerita; Jacquelyn Yvonne McLendon, Professor of English and Africana Studies, emerita; George Warren Cook, artist and former Assistant Chief of the Pamunkey Indian Tribe; and Patrick James O'Connell, Chef and Proprietor of The Inn at Little Washington.

Last Day of Classes

On the last day of classes in the spring, graduating students are invited to ring the ceremonial Wren bell. Students studying remotely who could not be here on their last day of classes were invited to ring the bell during Commencement Weekend.

Commencement Weekend: The Candlelight Ceremony

The Friday of Commencement weekend, graduating students are invited to gather for a candle-lighting ceremony. Tradition holds that the seniors select three speakers — one faculty member, one administrator and one fellow student — each of whom has had a close relationship with the class during their years at William & Mary. The atmosphere is fun and nostalgic, culminating in illuminating and raising the candles together as a graduating class. And, of course, with candles aloft, they sing the Alma Mater.

The Walk Across Campus

William & Mary's unique Commencement completes the symbolic circle begun by the Opening Convocation ceremony. Four years after they emerged from the Wren portico to the cheers of their classmates, the graduating students now return in the opposite direction, passing back through the portico dressed in their full graduation regalia. From there, they continue their "Walk Across Campus" to Zable Stadium, where Commencement ceremonies are held.
