HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

MELLODY HOBSON
Doctor of Humane Letters

Mellody Hobson, you are a nationally-recognized leader in business, finance and civic life. You use your prominence to share powerful lessons on financial literacy and investor education. You inspire, influence and amaze – using your voice to ensure that others may flourish.

You credit your mother, Dorothy, with instilling in you a relentless drive, preparing and encouraging you to excel no matter the challenge. You learned from her the value and freedom of financial security and inherited her passion for education.

After graduating from Princeton University in 1991, you rose from intern to Co-CEO and President at Ariel Investments, a highly respected Chicago financial firm. You developed a reputation as a courageous and candid leader.

You serve as Chair of the Board of Starbucks Corporation and as a Director of JPMorgan Chase. You previously chaired the Board of DreamWorks Animation.

You co-founded Ariel Alternatives and helped launch Project Black, an innovative effort to forge a new class of Black and Latinx entrepreneurs. Princeton University has bestowed upon you its highest honor, the annual Woodrow Wilson Award, for your commitment to national service. In 2015, Time magazine named you one of the “100 Most Influential People” in the world, and in 2021, Fortune ranked you among the most powerful women in the world.

Though your career has led you far, Chicago regularly calls you home. You serve as Chair of After-School Matters, a non-profit that provides teens with high-quality after-school and summer programs. You are vice-chair of World Business Chicago, board member of The Chicago Public Education Fund, and chair of The Economic Club of Chicago. In 2018, the governor of Illinois awarded you the Order of Lincoln — the state’s highest honor.

Mellody Hobson, you shatter stereotypes of every kind through your commitment to “magnificent change.” William & Mary is proud to honor you. By the virtue of the power vested in me by the Board of Visitors and the Ancient Royal Charter of The College of William & Mary in Virginia, I hereby bestow upon you the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, Honoris Causa.

STEPHANIE MURPHY
Doctor of Public Service

Stephanie Murphy, your career exemplifies principled leadership and dedication to public service. As a member of the United States House of Representatives, you have garnered a national reputation as an independent and effective voice in government.

You were only six months old in 1979 when your parents fled communist Vietnam with you and your brother in the middle of the night. Several days into the journey, the boat you were on ran out of fuel, and your family was left adrift in the South China Sea. A U.S. Navy ship helped your family to reach a refugee camp – and from there, your family settled in Virginia. You have cited the sailors’ compassion as your first lesson in America’s ability to exercise power with generosity.

In the summer of 1996, you began your studies at William & Mary. You were the first person in your family to attend college, earning a bachelor’s degree in economics in 2000. You were a member of the Chi Omega sorority, a resident of Japanese House and a research assistant. You went on to receive a master’s degree in Foreign Service from Georgetown University and became a national security specialist in the Office of the U.S. Secretary of Defense, where you tackled issues from counterterrorism to strategic planning.

In 2016, you became the first Vietnamese-American woman elected to Congress. You represent Florida’s Seventh District, serving on the House Ways and Means Committee and the House Armed Services Committee. You joined the newly created Problem Solvers Caucus in 2017, which is committed to working on critical issues in a bipartisan manner, and you are a member of the Select Committee investigating the January 6 attack on the U.S. Capitol. You are the first woman of color to lead the Blue Dogs Coalition, a group of Democrats focused on fiscal responsibility, national defense and pragmatic legislating.

In August 2018, you returned to W&M to speak at Convocation. You encouraged students to pursue their own paths as service-minded citizens and to seek people with different backgrounds. “Learn how to argue and persuade others,” you said, “and stand up for your principles in ways that are dignified, respectful and civil.” You noted that W&M alumna is one of the titles you are most proud to hold.

Stephanie Murphy, your tireless service proves the power of generosity, talent and hard work. Your alma mater is proud to make you an alumna twice over. By the virtue of the power vested in me by the Board of Visitors and the Ancient Royal Charter of The College of William & Mary in Virginia, I hereby bestow upon you the degree of Doctor of Public Service, Honoris Causa.

THE CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES

In this, the 329th year of its founding, William & Mary will award approximately 2,813 degrees. They include some 1,620 undergraduate degrees and 1,193 graduate degrees.

Of the undergraduate degrees, approximately 680 are the Bachelor of Arts; 710 are the Bachelor of Science; 228 are the Bachelor of Business Administration; and 2 are the Bachelor of Education.

Of the graduate degrees, approximately 309 are the Master of Business Administration; 37 are the Master of Accounting; 16 are the Master of Arts; 158 are the Master of Education; 236 are the Master of Science; 54 are the Master of Arts in Education; 1 is the Master of Public Policy; 13 are the Educational Specialist; 45 are the Master of Laws; 229 are the Juris Doctor; 19 are the Doctor of Education; and 76 are the Doctor of Philosophy.

PRIZES AND AWARDS

Student Awards

The Lord Botetourt Medal is awarded annually to the graduating senior who has attained the greatest distinction in scholarship.

The James Frederic Carr Memorial Cup is awarded to a graduating senior on the basis of character, scholarship, and leadership. It was established as a memorial to James Frederic Carr, a former William & Mary student who served in World War I and lost his life before he could return to William & Mary.

The Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award, given in the form of a medallion, is in recognition of influence for good, taking into consideration such characteristics of heart, mind and conduct as evince a spirit of love and helpfulness to others. It is awarded each year to two members of the student body and to a third person possessing the characteristics specified by the donors.

The Thatcher Prize for Excellence in Graduate and Professional Study is given to an outstanding graduate student completing an advanced degree in Arts and Sciences, Education, Marine Science, Business Administration or Law, and is awarded on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership and service. Initiated in 2000 by William & Mary, the award honors Margaret, The Lady Thatcher, 21st Chancellor of the university, in recognition of her seven-year term of service.

Faculty & Staff Awards

The Thomas Ashley Graves, Jr., Award is presented annually to a member of the faculty in recognition of sustained excellence in teaching. To honor Thomas A. Graves, Jr., 23rd President of William & Mary, the award has been endowed by alumni and friends of the former president.

The Charles Joseph Duke, Jr., and Virginia Welton Duke Award is awarded annually to an outstanding William & Mary employee or one contracted to provide auxiliary services. It has been endowed by Charles Bryan Duke and Ann Evans Duke in memory of Charles and Virginia Duke for their years of distinguished and loving service to The College of William & Mary in Virginia.

The Values in Action Award was established in the spring of 2021 by two anonymous donors. It recognizes William & Mary faculty and staff who exemplify the university's values of belonging, curiosity, excellence, flourishing, integrity, respect and service.

THE COLLEGE AND ROYAL COATS OF ARMS

William & Mary was the first American institution of higher learning to be granted a royal coat of arms issued on May 14, 1694 by the College of Arms in London. The College Coat of Arms depicts college buildings in silver on a green field with a golden sun against a blue sky. The seal does not represent actual William & Mary buildings because the coat of arms was issued before construction began on what is now called the Wren Building. The royal charter calls for a “common seal” for William & Mary and that original seal included the coat of arms in the center.

The two smaller shields represent the royal arms of the House of Stuart, from which Mary II was descended, and of King William III (of England) & II (of Scotland). The escutcheon depicting a golden lion on a blue field appears on King William’s coat of arms as a reference to the royal house of Nassau to which William belonged.

THE COLLEGE MACE

THE COLLEGE MACE

The College Mace is carried by the president of the Student Assembly, or a designated representative, at official William & Mary convocations as a symbol of the authority vested in the rector of the university and delegated to the president of the university. As such, it always precedes the rector and the president.

Designed and handcrafted by the Gorham Company of New York, the mace is made of sterling silver. It was given to William & Mary by alumni and students at Charter Day on February 8, 1923, upon the 230th anniversary of the granting of the Royal Charter.

The mace is four feet long. Its 12 key sections commemorate many of the people and events in William & Mary’s 300-year history. They include: an American eagle, symbolizing liberty and freedom of thought; a sphere, symbolizing unity; the College Coat of Arms; arms representing the early chancellors of the university; the seven seals of Colonial Virginia; colored enamel emblems including flags and arms of Great Britain, Virginia, and the United States; full-size reproductions of three William & Mary medals; the names of 38 distinguished alumni; the globe, with the continents outlined; the names of the colonial governors of Virginia; American Indian head emblems commemorating the Brafferton Indian School, one of the three William & Mary departments before the American Revolution; and the names of the presidents of William & Mary.

When not in use, the mace is placed in the Earl Gregg Swem Library under the care of the University Archivist.

THE MARISCHAL MACE

The Marischal Mace is carried by an elected representative of the Graduate Council of the Student Assembly at official William & Mary convocations.

A gift from the University of Aberdeen in honor of William & Mary’s 300th anniversary, the mace was presented by the University’s Principal and Vice Chancellor, Professor John Maxwell Irvine. The University of Aberdeen is comprised of King’s College (founded 1495) and Marischal College (founded 1593), where William & Mary’s founder and first president, the Reverend James Blair, was educated.

The mace, a silver replica of one of the two maces carried by Sacrists at traditional university ceremonies in Scotland, was first carried in academic procession at the Charter Day ceremony in February 1993.

When not in use, the mace is placed in the Earl Gregg Swem Library under the care of the University Archivist.

WILLIAM & MARY/UNIVERSITY OF ST ANDREWS JOINT DEGREE PROGRAMME COAT OF ARMS

JOINT DEGREE PROGRAMME
COAT OF ARMS

This Coat of Arms was officially recognized in 2015 by the Scottish Heraldry Board. It was designed by two Joint Degree students, Abigail Gomulkiewicz and Andrew Hashim (both Class of 2015) to be a unifying symbol of the joint venture. The Coat of Arms presents William & Mary’s griffin and St Andrews’ dragon together holding up the book of knowledge; the third golden key rising from the other two represents the Joint Programme as a third entity growing from the two distinct universities. The Latin motto means “seek knowledge constantly.”

BADGES AND CHAINS OF OFFICE

The Chancellor’s Badge and Chain of Office were presented to William & Mary by the Society of the Alumni at the investiture of Chancellor Warren E. Burger at Charter Day on February 7, 1987.

The Rector’s Badge and Chain of Office were presented to the university by Anne Dobie Peebles ’44 upon her retirement from the Board of Visitors. She served 13 years on the Board, the last three as rector.

The President’s badge and chain of office were first worn by President W. Taylor Reveley III in 2018. The badge and chain of office were gifts from President

Reveley to the university in memory and honor of those William & Mary presidents who preceded him and those who will follow.

Each piece was handcrafted by the firm of Thomas Fattorini, Ltd. of Birmingham, England, and features an enameled depiction of the coat-of-arms of William & Mary, issued in 1694 by the College of Arms (heraldry) in London as specified in the royal charter. The President's badge is crafted of silver and gold; the Chancellor's badge of silver and enamel and the Rector's of silver and gold.

When not in use, the Badges and Chains of Office are placed in the Earl Gregg Swem Library under the care of the university archivist.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The ceremonial robes worn in the academic procession speak by their shapes and their colors of the breadth and intricate structure of the academic world. Against the basic black of caps and gowns worn by the students receiving bachelor's and master's degrees, the colors of diverse universities and academic fields stand in high relief. The gowns themselves are of different shape—note especially the sleeves—for bachelors, masters and doctors. The typical American cap is flat with a tassel draped over the front edge, but some universities in the United States and abroad use caps that are softly peaked or round and stiff. Hoods, too, differ in shape for each of the traditional degrees. The lining of the hood announces by its color the university conferring the degree—note the green, gold and silver of William & Mary. William & Mary's distinctive green doctoral robe was first worn by graduates at Commencement 2002. With an open front in the tradition of the British universities, the piping on the chevrons identifies the degree conferred (dark blue for the Ph.D., light blue for the Ed.D., and purple for the J.D.). The edge of all of the hoods as well as the chevrons and piping on academic gowns mark the field of study according to the following color scheme:

	Agriculture		Medicine
	Arts, Letters, Humanities		Music
	Commerce, Business		Oratory
	Economics		Philosophy
	Education		Physical Education
	Engineering		Public Administration
	Fine Arts, Architecture		Science
	Journalism		Social Work
	Law		Theology
	Library Science

STUDENT SPEAKERS

Undergraduate Ceremony

This year's undergraduate speaker, Eli Rothleider, is graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in Economics and a minor in Russian and Post-Soviet studies. He has served on the executive board of the Club Water Polo team, and also runs his own small unofficial film club for students and friends on campus. Eli is deeply passionate about helping students find their place at William & Mary, and served as a Senior Interviewer Intern at the admission office the summer and fall of his senior year, along with being both a Tour Guide and an Orientation Aide. He is also closely involved with a few research teams in the economics department, and is a Monroe Scholar. Eli is from Chantilly, Virginia and is the very proud son of Neal and Sarah Rothleider.

Graduate Ceremony

Graduate student speaker, Augustine Manga, is graduating with her Juris Doctor from William & Mary Law School. She received her Bachelor of Arts in both Government & Politics and Criminology & Criminal Justice with a minor in Law & Society from the University of Maryland, College Park. During her time at William & Mary, Augustine served on the executive boards of the Black Law Students Association, the Alternative Dispute Resolution Competition Team and the Honor Council. As a second-year law student, Augustine wrote a piece of legal scholarship that has since been published in the law school's Journal of Race, Gender, and Social Justice. Alongside her work in class, Augustine gained legal experience working at various law firms, externing in federal district court, and conducting criminal law research as a Research Assistant. After sitting for the Bar Exam, Augustine will begin her career as a Labor &

Employment Associate. Augustine would not be where she is now without the love and support from her community, and she is honored to speak before the graduating class of 2022!

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

William & Mary acknowledges the Indigenous peoples who are the original inhabitants of the lands our campus is on today – the Cheroenhaka (Nottoway), Chickahominy, Eastern Chickahominy, Mattaponi, Monacan, Nansemond, Nottoway, Pamunkey, Patawomeck, Upper Mattaponi, and Rappahannock tribes – and pay our respect to their tribal members past and present.

ALMA MATER

Hark the students' voices swelling,
Strong and true and clear
Alma Mater's love they're telling
Ringing far and near.

CHORUS

William & Mary loved of old
Hark upon the gale,
Hear the thunder of our chorus
Alma Mater hail!

God, our Father, hear our voices
Listen to our cry
Bless the college of our fathers
Let her never die.

– James Southall Wilson (1902)

A photograph of a group of young women sitting outdoors, likely at a festival or concert. They are all wearing light blue t-shirts with the word "FRIENDS" printed on them. The woman in the center-left is wearing pink sunglasses and smiling broadly. The woman next to her is also smiling. The woman on the far right has a watch on her left wrist. They are all looking towards the camera.

The Years in Review
2018–2022

100 Years of Women

Beginning in 2018, William & Mary launched a yearlong celebration of the 100th anniversary of coeducation at the university. Over the course of the academic year, the university hosted a series of guest speakers, performances and special events including the first-ever W&M Women's Weekend for alumnae.

In the fall of 1918, 24 women were admitted as undergraduate students at the university. In 2018, women made up 45 percent of university faculty and 58 percent of the student body. During 2018-19, the university celebrated the accomplishments of the 55,000+ alumnae, and the many women students, faculty and staff of William & Mary.

Inauguration of Katherine A. Rowe

Katherine A. Rowe was inaugurated as William & Mary's 28th president — and first woman president — during the university's annual Charter Day ceremony on February 8, 2019. More than 4,000 people attended the event in Kaplan Arena. The ceremony also featured the re-investiture of Robert M. Gates '65, L.H.D. '98 as chancellor.

Veteran-to-Executive Transition program established

Thanks to a $10-million gift from an anonymous alumna who serves as a trustee of the William & Mary Foundation, the university established the Veteran-to-Executive Transition program (W&M VET) to prepare veterans to excel in civilian leadership roles. W&M VET builds on William & Mary's interdisciplinary strengths, its online degree offerings and its increasingly robust active-duty and veterans programs to help those who serve our country transition successfully into the civilian workforce. The program's first certificate program – "Flourishing Through Life Transitions" – emphasizes a holistic approach centered on wellness.

William & Mary responds to COVID-19

As the nation began responding to the COVID-19 pandemic in early 2020, William & Mary took immediate steps to slow the spread of the virus and safeguard the health of the campus community. The adaptations required a great deal of creativity, flexibility and innovation from the university community as a whole. Throughout the pandemic, W&M faced unprecedented trials, experiencing both challenges and successes all while finding ways to support one another and the larger community.

First cohort of Posse Scholars begins journey at W&M

In fall 2020, William & Mary announced a new partnership with the The Posse Foundation to provide full scholarships to diverse cohorts of students, many of whom will be the first in their families to attend college. It was an unprecedented union, as W&M became the first university to select Posse Scholars from the Commonwealth of Virginia and the first school to select from a broader region instead of a single metro area. The first cohort of Posse Scholars started at the university in fall 2021, after four months of virtual Pre-Collegiate Training. Multi-hour Zoom sessions consisting of various ice breakers, team building activities and other exercises brought the 11 students together throughout the spring and summer and helped them build strong connections despite not being able to see each other in person.

Construction projects move forward

W&M's Institute for Integrative Conservation, funded by a $19.3 million gift from an anonymous alumna, opened in January 2020. Also in 2020, work began or moved forward on several campus construction projects, including the Reveley Garden, the Sadler Center expansion and W&M's performing arts facilities. Additionally, a design concept for "Hearth: Memorial to the Enslaved" was approved. When completed in spring 2022, the memorial and surrounding area will reimagine the Jamestown Road pathway to the university's Historic Campus, positioned just across the street from the Office of Undergraduate Admission.

Naming & Renaming

In 2020, the Board of Visitors adopted a set of principles and imperatives for the naming and renaming of structures and spaces on campus. As part of that effort, the board also approved the immediate renaming of Trinkle Hall as Unity Hall and the Virginia Institute of Marine Science's Maury Hall as York River Hall. In 2021, the board voted to rename two additional buildings and one campus structure to honor trailblazing alumni who helped open the door for marginalized people at both the university and beyond. Morton Hall became John E. Boswell Hall. The Arcade at Cary Field, the arched walkway at Zable Stadium that serves as its northern colonnade, was named the Arthur A. Matsu Arcade. And Taliaferro Hall became Hulon L. Willis Sr. Hall. In addition, Tyler Hall reverted to its previous name, Chancellors Hall.

W&M launches All In athletics campaign after successful completion of For the Bold

Launched in March 2021, the All In campaign for William & Mary Athletics seeks to galvanize the entire university community to shape a bolder future in which all student-athletes can perform at their highest level and reach their fullest potential. The goals of the campaign are to engage and build community, increase annual giving and raise $55 million. In November, the university announced that, as a result of the campaign, it had received gifts totaling more than $1.1 million from several donors for the new W&M Athletics Complex. The complex encompasses Kaplan Arena, a new Sports Performance Center adjacent to the arena, the Mackesy Tennis Center, Busch Field and the Tribe Field Hockey Center. The project will include approximately 167,000 square feet of renovated and new spaces. As of March 2022, more than $29 million has been raised toward the All In campaign.

The All In campaign builds on the successful completion of W&M's For the Bold campaign, which raised a total of $1.04 billion by its completion in June 2020. The university successfully reached its top three goals for the campaign — strengthen alumni engagement, increase alumni participation and raise $1 billion. The campaign led to wide-ranging transformations across the university and new opportunities and experiences for generations of students, faculty, alumni and staff. Throughout For the Bold, gifts from donors funded more than $303 million in scholarships for students, the top priority for the campaign.

W&M begins centennial celebration of Asians and Asian Americans

In 1921, Pu-Kao Chen '23 traveled from Shanghai, China, to enroll at William & Mary, becoming the university's first Asian student. Twelve years later, Hatsuye Yamasaki '37 became the first known Asian American woman to attend the university. Generations of Asian and Asian American students, faculty and staff followed — and created their own firsts — over the next 100 years. William & Mary is marking that anniversary with a multiyear commemoration, which began in the spring of 2021. Later that summer, Virginia's governor announced plans for a new historical marker to honor Arthur "Art" Matsu '27, W&M's first known Asian American student and the first W&M alumnus to play for the National Football League. The Asian Centennial is celebrating all those at W&M, past and present, who identify as Asian or of Asian ancestry, including those from Southwest Asia — often referred to as the Middle East.

William & Mary and Colonial Williamsburg partner to research, relocate, interpret 18th-century Bray School

Researchers from William & Mary and Colonial Williamsburg announced in Feb. 2021 the discovery of the nation's oldest extant building dedicated to the education of enslaved and free Black children. The two institutions have forged a partnership regarding the future use of the building, now located on campus and known as the Bray-Digges House. It is likely the only remaining Colonial-Era building in the country that was dedicated to the education of Black children. The agreement calls for relocation of the structure to Colonial Williamsburg's Historic Area, where it would become the 89th original structure restored by the foundation. The partnership also establishes the Williamsburg Bray School Initiative, a joint venture of the two institutions to use the Bray School as a focal point for research, scholarship and dialogue regarding the interconnected, often troubled, legacy of race, religion and education in Williamsburg and in America. The newly created William & Mary Bray School Lab will serve as the research home for the initiative, where scholars, descendants and local community members will explore the history of the school itself, its students and their lived experiences.

W&M unveils Climate Action Roadmap guide to a greener future

In November 2021, William & Mary rolled out the Climate Action Roadmap portion of its Sustainability Plan. The nine-year roadmap sets out specific suggestions in key areas of the university's multi-pronged approach to a more sustainable future.

W&M's first long-range, comprehensive Sustainability Plan was launched in 2019. The Sustainability Plan included a commitment to establish an ambitious carbon neutrality date along with a plan on climate action, which is the Climate Action Roadmap. The roadmap supports the Sustainability Plan's progress, and in many cases builds upon the plan, going further for even greater impact. It contains suggestions for actions in three sections: education & research, 2030 carbon neutral campus and W&M community action.

W&M outlines Vision 2026 strategic plan

During William & Mary's 2022 Charter Day ceremony, President Katherine A. Rowe outlined its Vision 2026 strategic plan. The plan has three aims – to expand W&M's reach, to educate for impact and to evolve to excel – and four areas of focus: data, water, democracy and careers.

In focusing on those areas, the university is drawing on distinct strengths of the W&M community in areas where the university already has clear expertise and a competitive advantage in addressing grand challenges. The plan will build in the area of democracy on the work W&M has begun under its Democracy Initiative, which seeks to make W&M a place where respectful dialogue can take place on challenging topics.

In March, Rowe hosted a community conversation to further detail the strategic plan. It came at a time when democracy was at the forefront of a global conversation as the war in Ukraine threatened an elected government and sovereign state. The William & Mary community has responded with compassion, support and concern for the Ukrainian people, mounting a comprehensive effort to educate the community about its short- and long-term impacts.

WILLIAM & MARY
Traditions

Convocation

Continuing a tradition that was reinaugurated during William & Mary's tercentenary in 1993, William & Mary begins each fall with Opening Convocation to celebrate the start of the academic session.

On the first day of classes, faculty, staff and students gather at the Sir Christopher Wren Building to signify the beginning of the academic year and to officially welcome all of our entering William & Mary students.

At the conclusion of the ceremony and the tolling of the Wren Building bell, the president leads the new students in a special procession from the front lawn to the Wren portico, where the new students are warmly welcomed by current members of the faculty, staff and student body waiting in the Wren courtyard. A festive campus-wide picnic dinner with live entertainment follows for the entire campus community.

The Raft Debate

Some William & Mary traditions are patently strange (just the way we like them). Consider the Raft Debate, a rhetorical royal rumble between faculty members representing different academic disciplines at the university. Here's the set-up: Four survivors of a shipwreck are stranded on a deserted island with only one tiny raft. Each must convince the audience that his or hers is the most worthy discipline to bring back to civilization. What follows are wildly theatrical appeals by otherwise normal professors and lots of semi-civil name-calling. The audience picks the winner by the volume of its applause.

Homecoming

Every October, William & Mary alumni flock to Williamsburg to celebrate and reconnect with classmates and their alma mater. Members of the Tribe, young and old, enjoy four days of parades, academic forums, parties, football and many other events.

In 2021, Homecoming weekend included an in-person commencement ceremony for the class of 2020.

Yule Log Ceremony

Right before students take off for Winter Break is the Yule Log ceremony. On a chilly Williamsburg night, the whole student body squeezes into the Wren Courtyard, where festive “cressets” (wood-burning torches) warm the crowd. The students are treated to live holiday music and student speeches explaining a diverse range of holiday traditions. The climax is when the university president takes the stage to lead the audience in a rousing celebration. Afterward, frozen students pile into the Great Hall to toss ceremonial sprigs of holly into the Yule Log fire for good luck. Then it's hot cider and sugar cookies for everybody.

Charter Day

February brings the annual celebration of William & Mary's Royal Charter — think "Happy Birthday William & Mary." Charter Day features speakers of note, along with the distribution of honorary degrees and prestigious awards to students, faculty and alumni. In recent years, the weekend has also included a comedy show, sponsored by Alma Mater Productions and the Student Assembly.

Last Day of Classes

On the last day of classes in the spring, graduating students are invited to ring the ceremonial Wren bell.

Commencement Weekend: The Candlelight Ceremony

The Thursday of Commencement weekend, graduating students are invited to gather for a candle-lighting ceremony. Tradition holds that the seniors select three speakers — one faculty member, one administrator and one fellow student — each of whom has had a close relationship with the class during their years at William & Mary. The atmosphere is fun and nostalgic, culminating in illuminating and raising the candles together as a graduating class. And, of course, with candles aloft, they sing the Alma Mater.

The Walk Across Campus

William & Mary's unique Commencement completes the symbolic circle begun by the Opening Convocation ceremony. Four years after they emerged from the Wren portico to the cheers of their classmates, the graduating students now return in the opposite direction, passing back through the portico dressed in their full graduation regalia. From there, they continue their "Walk Across Campus" to Zable Stadium, where Commencement ceremonies are held.

COMMENCEMENT

THE LORD BOTETOURT MEDAL

Sumié Aileen Yotsukura

The Lord Botetourt Medal is presented each year to the undergraduate student who has most distinguished him or herself in scholarship during their time at William & Mary. In 2022, this singular honor is awarded to SUMIÉ AILEEN YOTSUKURA.

Sumié graduates today with a Bachelor of Arts in Asian & Pacific Islander American Studies and Theatre. Sumié is recognized for her clear intellect, outstanding research capabilities and dedication to using scholarship to educate and engage others in issues related to diversity and inclusion.

On campus, Sumié frequently worked on shows with the theatre department, consulted at the Writing Resources Center and was a member of the Asian American Student Initiative. After three years of performing with Sinfonicron, a student-run theatre company that produces annual musicals and light operas, Sumié served as director. She also served as president of the Theatre Students Association and was vice president of Alpha Psi Omega.

This spring, Sumié presented “Your Best (Asian) American Girl” at the Williamsburg Regional Library Theater as part of her senior thesis. The cabaret chronologized her journey grappling with her identity as a biracial third-generation Japanese American. Through music and monologues, Sumié displayed her remarkable skills in musical theater and her grace in exploring complex issues of identity and culture.

After writing an extremely high level paper on using Title VII of the Civil Rights Act to protect the rights of Asian American actors and actresses in Hollywood, Sumié was invited to work on a research project for the Asian Centennial at William & Mary. Amongst her major finds in the William & Mary archives, Sumié discovered an article written by P.K. Chen, a 1923 graduate and the first student of Asian ancestry to attend the university. From this discovery, Sumié built an exhibit that was displayed in Swem Library. The exhibit opened conversations on the continuing issues of racial discrimination that Asian ancestry students face, and on mental health, a topic P.K. Chen wrote about nearly 100 years ago that continues to resonate for the Asian ancestry community today.

A professor wrote that, “Sumié has a passion for learning, a belief that learning can have a social impact, and an amazing ability to impart knowledge. Sumié Yotsukura represents the best ideals of a student and a scholar.”

The Commencement Policy Committee found that Sumié’s skill and dedication to diverse interests, commitment to sharing knowledge and substantive impact on the William & Mary community embody the essence of the award.

THE JAMES FREDERIC CARR MEMORIAL CUP

Caroline Hutchings Morin

The James Frederic Carr Memorial Cup was established in honor of a William & Mary student who served with distinction in the First World War and lost his life before he could return to graduate. The award recognizes the student who best exemplifies character, scholarship and leadership. The recipient of the 2022 Carr Memorial Cup is CAROLINE HUTCHINGS MORIN.

Caroline distinguished herself as a senior program manager for the Geospatial Evaluation and Observation Lab, overseeing 17 other undergraduate researchers on the geoLab's geoParsing team. Highly dedicated to her studies, Caroline graduates with a Bachelor of Arts with a double major in International Relations and History. Her colleagues commended her for being passionate about her work and highly organized, noting that she “never misses the mark when it comes to the smallest details.”

Caroline is the published author of numerous papers that have appeared on the front page of the National Geospatial Intelligence Agency's Tearline website. Her data-driven papers have ranged from the environmental impact of Russian mining in Central Africa to emerging industrial parks in China. She has also engaged in development work in Laos, Ecuador and Spain. Caroline also dedicated much of her time to Blockchain research, teaching a Blockchain regulation course and publishing in peer-reviewed journals.

For helping to ensure inclusivity in the 2021 Yule Log Celebration, while Vice President of the Eta circle of Omicron Delta Kappa, and for promoting diversity as a research lead for geoLab, Caroline was one of two students recognized as Diversity Champions in April 2022 by the William & Mary Office of Diversity & Inclusion.

Peer nominators described Caroline's commitment to leading and nurturing her teams, facilitating the open sharing of ideas, encouraging diverse perspectives and graciously promoting critical thinking and debate. In recognizing Caroline's leadership, a peer wrote, “Caroline has taught me the limitless value of making others feel valued.”

Nominators commended Caroline for the intention she brings to mentorship, her compassion and her drive to help others succeed.

In describing Caroline, her peers praised her for demonstrating heart, mind and conduct that shows true compassion for others. The Commencement Policy Committee also recognized Caroline for her commendable grace in leadership, exceptional scholarship and intellectual curiosity. Through her drive, generosity and service to the William & Mary community, Caroline has exemplified the core qualities of the Carr Memorial Cup.

THE THATCHER PRIZE FOR EXCELLENCE IN GRADUATE AND PROFESSIONAL STUDY

Robert Clay Thompson, Jr.

The Thatcher Prize was created in honor of the 21st Chancellor of William & Mary, Margaret, The Lady Thatcher. The award is presented annually to recognize an outstanding student in graduate or professional study. The winner is selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character and service. The recipient of the 2022 Thatcher Prize is ROBERT CLAY THOMPSON, JR.

Rob completed his Ph.D. and successfully defended his dissertation, "Student Veterans: A Quantitative Examination of Provided Resources and their Effect on Success," in just three years. He graduates today from the William & Mary School of Education as a thoughtful, reflective scholar and highly respected instructor.

Rob is a veteran of the U.S. Army and carried that dedication to service to William & Mary. He worked as a graduate assistant in the Troops to Teachers program and has served as a liaison and recruiter to veterans who may have an interest in education or counseling. Rob's contributions to Student Veterans of William & Mary were instrumental in aligning veteran resources across the university. Nominators described Rob as committed to the well-being and success of others. He leads without seeking recognition and calls others forward with him to advance progress.

As a graduate student, Rob has distinguished himself by researching the needs of student veterans and factors influencing their success in higher education, a promising field with limited existing study.

As one nominator wrote, "Rob's work has the potential to meaningfully impact practice in higher education in a way that will have tangible positive impacts on a population that is underserved." Another added, "Rob will certainly become a highly cited author given his work to date."

When Rob began as a doctoral student, an instructor quickly observed that he was too advanced to take a particular course. Rob not only moved to a higher level, he also shared his expertise with his peers. Rob organized study groups and served as a leader to classmates. He eventually became a co-instructor for those courses.

Throughout his nominations, Rob's colleagues commended his intellect, strength of character and artistry in civil discourse as representative of a servant leader. A nominator wrote, "He is an educator in every sense of the word: dedicated to assuring that his students are learning at a deep level and applying their understanding towards real-world products and authentic audiences." The William & Mary community has benefited greatly from Rob's leadership and service.

THE ALGERNON SYDNEY SULLIVAN AWARD

The Sullivan Award, given in the form of a medallion, is in recognition of influence for good, taking into consideration such characteristics of heart, mind, conduct and demonstrating a spirit of love and helpfulness to others. It is awarded each year to two individuals from the graduating student body and to a third person who has a close relationship to the university.

Calvin Joshua Jinyoung Kim

CALVIN JOSHUA JINYOUNG KIM embodies the Sullivan Award ideals of heart, kindness and consideration for others. A double major in Sociology and Asian and Pacific Islander American Studies, Calvin excels in scholarship and service with an energized spirit of positivity.

A peer wrote that Calvin "does not just like his classes, he loves his field of study and throws his all into it." Through his exceptional academic record and impassioned application, Calvin was chosen as a Freeman Fellow as a sophomore. This fellowship would have permitted Calvin to complete an internship in Asia, if COVID-19 had not made travel impossible. Undeterred, Calvin persisted in his applications and was offered an internship with the 1882 Foundation, a nonprofit dedicated to broadening public awareness of the history and continuing significance of the Chinese Exclusion Act of 1882.

On campus, Calvin embodies the role of host, welcoming and guiding countless peers. As an Orientation Aide, an Orientation Area Director and a senior interviewer in the Office of Undergraduate Admission, Calvin was the person many future and incoming students met at the university.

After joining the Asian American Student Initiative in his sophomore year, Calvin served as secretary, co-director and alumni outreach chair. He worked to create a safe forum for APIA students to share their interests, connect with their identity and build a family away from home. A member of the all-gender service fraternity Alpha Phi Omega, Calvin volunteered on campus and in the surrounding community.

A nominator wrote, "Not only is Calvin gracious in his work as a volunteer, but he applies these traits of heart and thoughtfulness into his everyday life. He has opened his home to those who needed it, and is always willing to talk if someone has asked for guidance. Calvin's time and effort have made this school a home for so many in ways no one else in our graduating class could."

THE ALGERNON SYDNEY SULLIVAN AWARD

Taylor Simone Young-Wells

TAYLOR SIMONE YOUNG-WELLS is recognized by her peers and professors for her grace, compassion and intellectual rigor. A sociology major passionate about understanding the intersectionality of race, gender, sexuality and socioeconomics, Taylor graduates from William & Mary with a Bachelor of Arts and will enter Fordham Law School in the fall.

Taylor's career aspirations were sparked by her experiences working at her local Burger King. She became passionate about addressing the daily hardships her co-workers faced. She plans to become an immigration lawyer and advocate for undocumented and documented immigrants in the United States.

As an intern with the York-James City-Williamsburg NAACP branch for two semesters, Taylor contributed fresh ideas to membership, scholarship and branding. In addition to fostering relationships with branch leaders, Taylor led the scholarship program. Her colleagues appreciated greatly how Taylor went above and beyond to ensure that all local schools, churches and community leaders received scholarship applications, helping to increase the pool of potential award recipients.

Her peers recognize Taylor as an incredible friend, leader and scholar. As a resident assistant for three years, Taylor hosted three events per month to facilitate friendships amongst the freshmen under her guidance.

Taylor exemplifies the Sullivan Award's spirit of love and helpfulness to others. As the president of the honor fraternity Phi Sigma Pi, Taylor led the chapter through complex challenges. She created fellowship and community to relieve the stress and isolation brought on by the pandemic.

A peer wrote, "She reaches out to people just for the sake of checking up on them, which was really valuable during the pandemic. She has been a rock for her friends who have gone through mental health crises."

"Taylor Young-Wells is a shining star who has exhibited leadership, fellowship and scholarship during her four years at William & Mary," wrote a nominator, "She has touched the lives of students, professors and staff."

Elizabeth M. Cascone

ELIZABETH M. CASCONE, Director of the Haven, is a steadfast advocate and confidential supporter for students, staff and alumni who have experienced issues of sexual assault and relationship violence. Liz effectively and compassionately adapts William & Mary policies and practices in response to national and state legislation and student needs. Liz's unwavering focus is on improving the recovery process for survivors.

Liz led the development and implementation of alternative resolutions for student survivors of campus sexual assault, relationship violence, stalking and sexual harassment. Sensing a need for a range of resolution processes for survivors, Liz participated in national training for restorative justice, a process by which offenders can recognize their accountability, address the harms caused and support the needs of the survivor.

In response to students' desire for more options for misconduct adjudication, Liz developed a new policy of Adaptable Resolution. Adaptable Resolution is grounded in restorative justice. The process provides a less formal resolution than investigations and hearings and takes an educational approach. Adaptable Resolution provides survivors with more choices for adjudication, thereby offering them more means to regain control.

Though often quiet and unseen, Liz's work is life-changing for members of the William & Mary community. Liz goes above and beyond to provide support and resources to survivors, even after investigations close. In addition, Liz provides confidential support and guidance to colleagues who report sexual misconduct or whose children have experienced sexual misconduct at other institutions and for alumni who experienced misconduct on campus years ago.

Liz is trusted by students, faculty and staff alike, reassuring all when they need it the most. Liz has become the person whom William & Mary community members turn to for confidential support in times of trauma, confusion and vulnerability.

The Sullivan Award is given in acknowledgment of an individual's good influence, heart, spirit of love and willingness to support others. Nominators recognize these characteristics in Liz and honor Liz's profound influence on the William & Mary community.

THE THOMAS ASHLEY GRAVES, JR. AWARD FOR SUSTAINED EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING

The Thomas Ashley Graves, Jr. Award is named for the twenty-third President of William & Mary and recognizes sustained excellence in teaching. The recipient of the award is selected annually by the President from nominations submitted by each of the academic deans.

Eric A. Kades

ERIC A. KADES has earned many awards in his years of teaching, and continues to strive for innovation and improvement. His drive inspires his colleagues and students alike.

Professor Kades has elevated teaching at William & Mary Law School. He is devoted to his craft and helps colleagues' teaching shine. As the Law School's vice dean from 2008–2011, Professor Kades reviewed teaching evaluations, mentored junior faculty, studied the empirical literature on teaching and learned about new techniques from colleagues. It was eye-opening for him, as he realized that even an accomplished teacher had much to learn and room to improve.

Shortly after his tenure as vice dean, Kades held the Kelly Professorship for Teaching Excellence, delivering presentations on pedagogy to the entire faculty. Years later, he remains a go-to person for teaching advice, whether to overcome a classroom problem or to adapt new techniques.

True to his philosophy of innovation and improvement, Professor Kades continues to adopt new practices in the classroom. Based on evidence about attention spans, he switches between modes of instruction through carefully choreographed classes, deploying Socratic questioning, lectures, short video clips, animated slides and polling.

With tablet computers installed in classrooms during the pandemic, he annotates slides during class, giving students an electronic record of notes. He further encourages engagement in large classes by programming small-group gatherings over pizza or donuts. Two years ago, a committee of law faculty, alumni and students honored him with the McGlothlin Faculty Teaching Award. Eric Kades reflects the ideal of lifelong learning and reinvention. He is an ideal choice for the Graves Award.

For his dedication to students, to the life of learning, and to William & Mary, we honor Eric A. Kades with the 2022 Thomas Ashley Graves, Jr. Award for Sustained Excellence in Teaching.

Qian Su

QIAN SU's contributions to the teaching and learning of Chinese over the past fifteen years have been indispensable to the Chinese Studies program's growth and success. Senior Lecturer Su has helped launch the careers of many students who now work around the world in academia, government service and the international business sector.

Chinese is a notoriously difficult language for adult learners. Senior Lecturer Su invites new learners in through high quality, rigorous instruction. Students are encouraged by their progress. For the past four academic years, Senior Lecturer Su's intermediate courses have retained roughly 90% of their enrollments, and a high percentage of her students continue into upper-level courses.

Every semester, evaluations of Senior Lecturer Su from students are effusive. "One of Professor Su's greatest strengths is that she balances so well her high expectations for the students and their potential to learn," one student noted.

Senior Lecturer Su has led William & Mary's study-abroad program in Beijing four times and has committed to lead it again when travel restrictions ease. A crucial component of the Chinese Studies major, this study-abroad program lasts seven-and-a-half weeks, making it the longest faculty-led summer program offered at William & Mary. It is also one of the most academically demanding; students complete eight credits of language instruction and take a three-credit, site-based culture course introducing them to Beijing.

Senior Lecturer Su also serves as president of the Chinese Language Teachers Association of Virginia (2021–2023). In this role she improves K-12 instruction across the Commonwealth. William & Mary and other universities will undoubtedly reap the rewards of this work.

For her dedication to students, to the life of learning, and to William & Mary, we honor Qian Su with the 2022 Thomas Ashley Graves, Jr. Award for Sustained Excellence in Teaching.

THE CHARLES JOSEPH DUKE, JR. AND VIRGINIA WELTON DUKE AWARD

Annually, an endowment from Charles and Ann Duke makes possible an award to an outstanding employee of the university. The award is given in memory of Mr. Duke's parents for their years of distinguished and loving service to William & Mary. Charles and Ann's daughter, Emily, now represents the family during the annual Duke Award ceremony.

Kathy L. O'Brien

KATHY L. O'BRIEN has gone above and beyond the demands of her work to support students, faculty and staff throughout her 26 years at the university. Currently, she serves as the fiscal coordinator of the economics department, where she is an integral partner in making the department function smoothly.

Recognized for her reliability and attention to detail, Kathy single-handedly ensures that all 30 faculty members and the more than 300 majors in her department have everything they need to teach, learn and grow.

Kathy is tireless with her generosity and effort. During the three years the economics department was without a second administrator, Kathy stepped in numerous times as an interim administrator. Her wealth of experience and good judgment make her a sought-after voice on hiring committees across campus. In 2008, she was appointed to the search committee for the vice president for student affairs. Known as a wonderful mentor to new administrators and a patient and kind teacher, Kathy helps William & Mary to run apace.

Kathy has a positive and warm attitude, even when handling setbacks and bureaucratic red tape. Her colleagues recognize not only her incredible competence and reliability but also her extraordinary dedication to the university's mission: to educate students equipped for lives of meaning and distinction.

Kathy is deeply committed to issues of diversity, equity and inclusion. She has been a crucial partner in the economics department's efforts to improve learning environments for students and faculty of color. Through her ability to navigate cross-cultural interactions, her kindness and patience, Kathy helps everyone feel welcome and invited into William & Mary spaces.

One nominator wrote, "I have rarely seen an administrative staff member with Kathy's level of expertise, commitment and interpersonal skills." The university is honored by Kathy's dedication and is incredibly fortunate to consider her a part of the William & Mary family.

Ray A. Burks

RAY A. BURKS is recognized by his colleagues and students as the center of the Sadler Center ecosystem. The lead set crew of student unions and engagement, Ray oversees set up for the panoply of events and services tailored for current and prospective students, alumni, faculty, staff and general community members.

As the front line staff member, Ray is the mainstay for the Sadler Center — a central hub for this campus. Ray coordinates with staff in building services, dining facilities, as well as contractors, to keep operations humming smoothly.

For more than two decades, Ray has worked unceasingly to create an atmosphere of belonging at William & Mary, leading the efforts of a small but mighty team of staff and students. With a natural affability, Ray steps up time and time again to go out of his way to recreate, re-design, build, assemble, paint or purchase items to improve the student experience. One nominator noted that Ray lights up and relishes the work he gets to do with and for students.

As a leader, Ray not only expects the best from himself, he also coaches others to excel. Ray translates obtuse descriptions of goals and breaks down overwhelming jobs into manageable tasks for his team. A colleague described Ray as ensuring excellence by making the unfamiliar, familiar, and making it fun along the way. When working with students, a nominator wrote that, "it may seem like he is teaching setups and building operations. In reality, students are learning about life and about themselves."

During the pandemic, Ray made campus safer for learning and provided students with much-needed community. He helped scout areas for remote classes and worked with facilities to set up classroom spaces in the Sadler Center. He built swings in the Crim Dell Meadow and drove hours to pick up Adirondack chairs and fire pits.

Ray leads by example and empowers the students and staff around him. As a nominator wrote, "I can't think of any more important benefits a person can make for William & Mary than what Ray contributes simply by being himself."
