HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

HENRY C. WOLF '64, J.D. '66

Doctor of Laws

Henry Charles “Hank” Wolf, your life is distinguished by vision, integrity and tenacity. A William & Mary alumnus twice over, you exemplify the power of a wide-ranging education to catalyze flourishing and leadership.

Interested in tax law from a young age, you moved to Williamsburg year-round to study at William & Mary, working four jobs and taking summer classes. While working nights as an auditor at the Quality Inn, you met and courted your beloved wife, Dixie. You earned your bachelor’s degree in economics in 1964 and, only two years later, your law degree. Never one to rest on your laurels, you later earned a Master of Business Administration from Louisiana State University and a Master’s of Law from Georgetown, and attended the Harvard Business School Advanced Management Program.

You launched your career in the U.S. Army, attaining the rank of captain in the Judge Advocate General’s Corps. You served as a law clerk for the U.S. Tax Court and an attorney for the Internal Revenue Service before embarking on an illustrious career with Norfolk Southern Corporation.

Over the course of 34 years, your long hours and insights gained from that broad-based education earned you trust and respect. You served as vice chairman and chief financial officer before retiring in 2007. Of your many accomplishments, you have ranked mentoring rising executives as the one you are most proud of.

That same commitment to future generations has inspired your indispensable leadership at William & Mary. During your two terms on the Board of Visitors, you were elected as vice rector and then rector, the first Jewish rector in this university’s history. You have chaired the William & Mary Real Estate Foundation board, and you are an emeritus member of the Virginia Institute of Marine Science Council. You welcomed a new class of students at Convocation in 2010.

As chairman emeritus of the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation, you understand deeply our nation’s history and William & Mary’s storied place in it. On campus, two facilities named in your honor elevate William & Mary’s foundational role in establishing U.S. democracy. The state-of-the-art Wolf Law Library honors the Law School community’s significant contributions to our republic, past, present and future. The Muscarelle Museum of Art Wolf Gallery preserves and displays cherished artifacts illustrating the university’s impact on the United States.

Recognizing the impact of your education, you established the 1779 Scholars Fund for Law School scholarships and have generously supported the Law School’s enduring mission to educate citizen lawyers to lead and to serve, as you have done. For your intellectual and professional accomplishment, William & Mary Law School bestowed upon you honorary membership in the Order of the Coif.

The breadth of your wisdom has made you a sought-after board member for private and public organizations alike, including Eastern Virginia Medical School, AGL Resources, Inc., and Hertz Global Holdings, Inc.

Henry Charles Wolf, your alma mater has flourished for your generous and keen-eyed leadership. You are of this place: through your service, your dedication and your love of William & Mary, your influence is felt across our schools and disciplines. By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Board of Visitors and the Ancient Royal Charter of The College of William and Mary in Virginia, I hereby confer upon you the degree of Doctor of Laws, Honoris Causa.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

PATTON PETER OSWALT '91

Doctor of Arts

Patton Peter Oswald, you are an entertainer of rare perception. William & Mary salutes you for standing confidently on the world stage with great good humor. You exemplify the most sincere ideals of your alma mater: curiosity, integrity and excellence.

Growing up, you memorized every comedy album you could play on your parents' turntable. (For the students in the audience, a "turntable" is that old music box you can buy at Urban Outfitters.) You enrolled at William & Mary with literary ambitions, pursuing a bachelor's degree in English. You produced comic strips for the Flat Hat and joined the fencing club, where you honed your sharp jabs. You became a member of the fraternity Phi Kappa Tau and lived off campus in a house where you and your friends would host the Five O'Clock Club. (And for anyone who needs to ask ... the first rule of Five O'Clock Club is that you don't ask about Five O'Clock Club.)

Like many W&M students, you headed to Washington, D.C., for the summer. While your peers watched speeches on the floor of Congress, you watched open-mikers in Garvin's comedy club. There you performed your first five-minute set in 1988 during the District of Comedy Festival.

After graduation, you moved to California to launch your career in entertainment. Since then, you have charmed audiences on stage, in film, television and print. You have acted in films such as "Zoolander," "Ratatouille," "The Informant," "Magnolia" and "The Circle." Your two memoirs, "Zombie Spaceship Wasteland" and "Silver Screen Fiend," have been widely hailed with terms like "colorful" and "hallucinogenic shimmer." They are required reading for budding writers and artists. On television, you have brought to life memorable characters such as Garth Blundon on "Parks and Recreation." One can only assume Garth picked up his penchant for historic preservation during a Family Weekend visit to Colonial Williamsburg.

Your humor has earned serious recognition. You have been nominated for seven Grammys; only 81 more to go until you tie Beyoncé! You've received four Primetime Emmy nominations, from 2009 to your most recent comedy special, "I Love Everything." In 2018, you won an Emmy for the comedy, "Talking for Clapping." (For those keeping score, that's one Emmy more than Beyoncé.) You won a Grammy the following year for an album of the same name, making you not an EGOT, but an EG.

Earlier this year, W&M's 105,000 alumni cheered you on "Celebrity Jeopardy," all the way to ... second place. (As the second oldest institution of higher education in the country, William & Mary can be proud of that!) You, however, are first in our hearts and funny bones. And we are grateful to have been first in yours so many times over the years, as you have supported this university with your kindness and whimsy.

Patton Peter Oswald, your alma mater is proud to celebrate the way your humor brings together a world too often divided. By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Board of Visitors and the Ancient Royal Charter of The College of William and Mary in Virginia, I hereby confer upon you the degree of Doctor of Arts, Honoris Causa.

PRIZES AND AWARDS

Student Awards

The Lord Botetourt Medal is awarded annually to the graduating senior who has attained the greatest distinction in scholarship.

The James Frederic Carr Memorial Cup is awarded to a graduating senior on the basis of character, scholarship and leadership. It was established as a memorial to James Frederic Carr, a former William & Mary student who served in World War I and lost his life before he could return to William & Mary.

The Thatcher Prize for Excellence in Graduate and Professional Study is given to an outstanding graduate student completing an advanced degree in Arts and Sciences, Education, Marine Science, Business Administration or Law, and is awarded on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership and service. Initiated in 2000 by William & Mary, the award honors Margaret, The Lady Thatcher, 21st Chancellor of the university, in recognition of her seven-year term of service.

The Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award, given in the form of a medallion, is in recognition of influence for good, taking into consideration such characteristics of heart, mind and conduct as evince a spirit of love and helpfulness to others. It is awarded each year to two members of the student body and to a third person possessing the characteristics specified by the donors.

Faculty & Staff Awards

The Thomas Ashley Graves, Jr. Award is presented annually to a member of the faculty in recognition of sustained excellence in teaching. To honor Thomas A. Graves, Jr., 23rd President of William & Mary, the award has been endowed by alumni and friends of the former president.

The Charles Joseph Duke, Jr. and Virginia Welton Duke Award is awarded annually to an outstanding William & Mary employee or one contracted to provide auxiliary services. It has been endowed by Charles Bryan Duke and Ann Evans Duke in memory of Charles and Virginia Duke for their years of distinguished and loving service to The College of William and Mary in Virginia.

The Values in Action Award was established in the spring of 2021 by two anonymous donors. It recognizes William & Mary faculty and staff who exemplify the university's values of belonging, curiosity, excellence, flourishing, integrity, respect and service.

THE COLLEGE AND ROYAL COATS OF ARMS

William & Mary was the first American institution of higher learning to be granted a royal coat of arms issued on May 14, 1694 by the College of Arms in London. The College Coat of Arms depicts college buildings in silver on a green field with a golden sun against a blue sky. The seal does not represent actual William & Mary buildings because the coat of arms was issued before construction began on what is now called the Wren Building. The royal charter calls for a “common seal” for William & Mary and that original seal included the coat of arms in the center.

The two smaller shields represent the royal arms of the House of Stuart, from which Mary II was descended, and of King William III (of England) & II (of Scotland). The escutcheon depicting a golden lion on a blue field appears on King William’s coat of arms as a reference to the royal house of Nassau to which William belonged.

THE COLLEGE MACE

THE COLLEGE MACE

The College Mace is carried by the president of the Student Assembly, or a designated representative, at official William & Mary convocations as a symbol of the authority vested in the rector of the university and delegated to the president of the university.

Designed and handcrafted by the Gorham Company of New York, the mace is made of sterling silver. It was given to William & Mary by alumni and students at Charter Day on February 8, 1923, upon the 230th anniversary of the granting of the Royal Charter.

The mace is four feet long. Its 12 key sections commemorate many of the people and events in William & Mary’s 300-year history. They include: an American eagle, symbolizing liberty and freedom of thought; a sphere, symbolizing unity; the College coat of arms; arms representing the early chancellors of the university; the seven seals of Colonial Virginia; colored enamel emblems including flags and arms of Great Britain, Virginia, and the United States; full-size reproductions of three William & Mary medals; the names of 38 distinguished alumni; the globe, with the continents outlined; the names of the colonial governors of Virginia; American Indian head emblems commemorating the Brafferton Indian School, one of the three William & Mary departments before the American Revolution; and the names of the presidents of William & Mary.

When not in use, the mace is placed in the Earl Gregg Swem Library under the care of the University Archivist.

THE MARISCHAL MACE

The Marischal Mace is carried by an elected representative of the Graduate Council of the Student Assembly at official William & Mary convocations.

A gift from the University of Aberdeen in honor of William & Mary’s 300th anniversary, the mace was presented by the University’s Principal and Vice Chancellor, Professor John Maxwell Irvine. The University of Aberdeen is comprised of King’s College (founded 1495) and Marischal College (founded 1593), where William & Mary’s founder and first president, the Reverend James Blair, was educated.

The mace, a silver replica of one of the two maces carried by Sacrists at traditional university ceremonies in Scotland, was first carried in the academic procession at the Charter Day ceremony in February 1993.

When not in use, the mace is placed in the Earl Gregg Swem Library under the care of the University Archivist.

THE MARISCHAL MACE

WILLIAM & MARY/UNIVERSITY OF ST ANDREWS JOINT DEGREE PROGRAMME COAT OF ARMS

JOINT DEGREE PROGRAMME
COAT OF ARMS

This Coat of Arms was officially recognized in 2015 by the Scottish Heraldry Board. It was designed by two Joint Degree students, Abigail Gomulkiewicz and Andrew Hashim (both Class of 2015) to be a unifying symbol of the joint venture. The Coat of Arms presents William & Mary’s griffin and St Andrews’ dragon together holding up the book of knowledge; the third golden key rising from the other two represents the Joint Programme as a third entity growing from the two distinct universities. The Latin motto means “seek knowledge constantly.”

BADGES AND CHAINS OF OFFICE

The Chancellor’s Badge and Chain of Office were presented to William & Mary by the Society of the Alumni at the investiture of Chancellor Warren E. Burger at Charter Day on February 7, 1987.

The Rector’s Badge and Chain of Office were presented to the university by Anne Dobie Peebles ’44 upon her retirement from the Board of Visitors. She served 13 years on the Board, the last three as rector.

The President's Badge and Chain of Office were first worn by President W. Taylor Reveley III in 2018. The badge and chain of office were gifts from President Reveley to the university in memory and honor of those William & Mary presidents who preceded him and those who will follow.

Each piece was handcrafted by the firm of Thomas Fattorini, Ltd. of Birmingham, England, and features an enameled depiction of the coat-of-arms of William & Mary, issued in 1694 by the College of Arms (heraldry) in London as specified in the royal charter. The President's badge is crafted of silver and gold; the Chancellor's badge of silver and enamel and the Rector's of silver and gold.

When not in use, the Badges and Chains of Office are placed in the Earl Gregg Swem Library under the care of the University Archivist.

CHANCELLOR'S BADGE AND CHAIN OF OFFICE

PRESIDENT'S BADGE AND CHAIN OF OFFICE

PASSING OF THE EMBLEMS OF OFFICE

On the first verse of the Alma Mater, as a public recognition of the ongoing tradition and vitality of William & Mary, the president of the Senior Class of 2023 will present the Senior Class Chain of Office to the president of the Class of 2024. On the last verse, the College Mace is presented to the incoming president of the Student Assembly by the outgoing Student Assembly president, and the Marischal Mace is presented to the incoming Graduate Council president by the outgoing Graduate Council president. With this act, the 2022-23 Session is officially concluded. Bearing their respective maces, the new Student Assembly president, followed by the new Graduate Council president, will lead the Official Party and faculties from the stadium.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The ceremonial robes worn in the academic procession speak by their shapes and their colors of the breadth and intricate structure of the academic world. Against the basic black of caps and gowns worn by the students receiving bachelor's and master's degrees, the colors of diverse universities and academic fields stand in high relief. The gowns themselves are of different shape—note especially the sleeves—for bachelors, masters and doctors. The typical American cap is flat with a tassel draped over the front edge, but some universities in the United States and abroad use caps that are softly peaked or round and stiff. Hoods, too, differ in shape for each of the traditional degrees. The lining of the hood announces by its color the university conferring the degree—note the green, gold and silver of William & Mary. William & Mary's distinctive green doctoral robe was first worn by graduates at Commencement 2002. With an open front in the tradition of the British universities, the piping on the chevrons identifies the degree conferred (dark blue for the Ph.D., light blue for the Ed.D. and purple for the J.D.). The edge of all of the hoods as well as the chevrons and piping on academic gowns mark the field of study according to the following color scheme:

- | | |

| Agriculture | Engineering |
| Arts, Letters, Humanities | Fine Arts, Architecture |

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

William & Mary acknowledges the Indigenous peoples who are the original inhabitants of the lands our campus is on today – The Cheroenhaka (Nottoway), Chickahominy, Eastern Chickahominy, Mattaponi, Monacan, Nansemond, Nottoway, Pamunkey, Patowomeck, Upper Mattaponi, and Rappahannock tribes – and pay our respect to their tribal members past and present.

ALMA MATER

Hark the students' voices swelling,
Strong and true and clear
Alma Mater's love they're telling
Ringing far and near.

CHORUS

William and Mary loved of old
Hark upon the gale,
Hear the thunder of our chorus
Alma Mater hail!

God, our Father, hear our voices
Listen to our cry
Bless the college of our fathers
Let her never die.

– James Southall Wilson (1902)

ACADEMIC STRUCTURE

BOARD OF VISITORS

The Board of Visitors is the governing body for William & Mary. The Governor of Virginia appoints individuals for a term of four years who may serve no more than two consecutive terms.

The 17 members of the Board of Visitors meet 4-5 times each year to discuss matters of long-term planning and budget issues for William & Mary. The Board of Visitors regularly engages the campus community through its eight committees and the alumni community through participation at annual and special events.

PRESIDENT Katherine A. Rowe

The President establishes the strategic direction of the university. For more than three centuries, William & Mary has enjoyed the leadership of presidents of surpassing vision and accomplishment. Katherine A. Rowe became William & Mary's 28th President on July 1, 2018. Nationally recognized as an innovator in higher education, Rowe is a champion for the importance of the liberal arts, entrepreneurship and strengthening education-workforce pathways.

CHANCELLOR Robert M. Gates '65, L.H.D. '98

William & Mary's Royal Charter of 1693 establishes the position of chancellor. The position is honorary and ceremonial, appointed by the Board of Visitors for a seven-year term. George Washington served as the university's first American chancellor. The Honorable Robert M. Gates '65, L.H.D. '98, was named William & Mary's 24th chancellor on February 3, 2012. He was re-invested for a second term on February 8, 2019. Chancellor Gates is the first alumnus to hold this position in the university's modern era.

PROVOST Dr. Peggy Agouris

Dr. Peggy Agouris became William & Mary's sixth provost on July 1, 2019. The Provost reports to the President and is the chief academic officer of William & Mary. Her office is responsible for managing all academic and research programs as well as academic budgets; overseeing institutional planning and space allocation; and promoting faculty development across all academic units. To accomplish these goals, the provost must effectively track trends in higher education (for instance, with regard to technology in the classroom); uphold academic excellence and build a culture of innovation; and support the various schools and academic units.

DEANS

Six deans report to the Provost. Each dean is responsible for providing leadership to their academic unit in accordance with the unit's own mission and vision. A dean's duties include liaising with faculty and staff on what support is needed to achieve academic goals; advising on employee recruitment and retention; and providing budgetary oversight for its departments. Deans take special care to focus on educating students within their respective academic units and supporting faculty in achieving outcomes in teaching and research.

Arts & Sciences At William & Mary, the faculty and programs within the Arts & Sciences unit are led by Dean Suzanne Raitt. The Dean is responsible for 54 majors ranging from English and Theatre Studies to Neuroscience and Physics; 63 minors; 12 Master's Programs; and six doctoral programs. Because William & Mary believes that the essential purpose of the liberal arts is to liberate and broaden the mind and to educate students with vision and perspective, as well as to provide them with specific practical skills and knowledge, every new undergraduate entering the university begins as a student in the Arts & Sciences. As the largest academic unit on campus, it currently enrolls more than 6,500 undergraduates and more than 300 graduate students.

The Raymond Mason School of Business is led by Dean Todd A. Mooradian. The business school seeks to offer high-quality educational programs at the undergraduate, graduate and professional levels. It fulfills this mission by (1) building a faculty whose research, teaching and service influence students, business leaders, policy makers and other scholars; and (2) engaging students in innovative educational experiences to nurture their creativity and help them to imagine the great business opportunities of the day. First established as a School of Business in 1968, today it offers full-time M.B.A., part-time M.B.A., executive M.B.A., Master's in Accounting, Master's of Science in Business Analytics and undergraduate business degrees.

The School of Education is led by Dean Robert C. Knoepfel. The school's mission is to prepare transformative leaders for a rapidly changing world and educational landscape. To that end, the dean is responsible for overseeing a wide range of degree programs in teacher education, educational policy, planning & leadership and counseling. The school also offers fully on-line master's degrees in counseling, as well as hybrid executive Ed.D. and master's programs in school leadership. Additionally, the School of Education partners with schools and other educational institutions to improve and empower communities locally, throughout Virginia, and beyond. Established as a distinct entity in 1962, the school today accounts for nearly a third of the master's degrees and almost half of all doctoral degrees awarded at William & Mary each year.

The Law School is led by Dean A. Benjamin Spencer. The law school seeks to transform students, schools and communities through professional preparation, collaborative partnerships and the translation of research into action. The school offers both a Juris Doctor (J.D.) program and a Master of Laws (LL.M.) program which offers a graduate degree in American Legal Studies for international students. Combined degree programs allow students to earn degrees in Business, American Studies or Public Policy, along with the J.D. Additionally, students in the law school's clinics provide more than 14,000 hours of service annually to underserved clients that include the elderly, immigrants, victims of spousal abuse and veterans. Founded in 1779, the school was the first in the United States to offer professional education in law. At least three American Presidents – Thomas Jefferson, James Monroe and John Tyler – were educated there.

The School of Marine Science, which is an integral part of the Virginia Institute of Marine Science (VIMS), is led by Dean and Director Derek Aday. VIMS is committed to a three-part mission: (1) to conduct interdisciplinary research in coastal ocean and estuarine science; (2) to educate students and citizens; and (3) to provide advisory service to policy makers, industry and the public. This creates a unique and dynamic training ground for students in the School of Marine Science who want to interface science and its application in service to the global community. The school offers the M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in marine science, with a variety of options in terms of disciplinary and interdisciplinary studies. VIMS was first chartered by the Commonwealth as the Virginia Fisheries Laboratory in 1940; the first VIMS marine science master's degree was awarded in 1943 and the doctoral program was first inaugurated in 1964.

William & Mary Libraries are led by Dean Carrie L. Cooper. The university's library system, which includes eight libraries in all (including the main entity, the Earl Gregg Swem Library) seeks to support and enhance teaching and research, as well as foster intellectual curiosity, creativity and lifelong learning. To those ends, it engages alumni authors and sponsors numerous programs for faculty and students. The library's origins date back to 1698, when Virginia's royal governor, Sir Francis Nicholson, donated his personal library of more than 200 volumes. By the end of the Revolutionary War, the nearly 3,000 books in the university library made it the second largest of its kind in North America. Today, the William & Mary library system plays a critical role in promoting open educational resources and other tools to reduce textbook costs for students.

William & Mary and Colonial Williamsburg partner to research, relocate, interpret 18th-century Bray School

Researchers from William & Mary and Colonial Williamsburg announced in February 2021 the discovery of the nation's oldest extant building dedicated to the education of enslaved and free Black children. The two institutions established the Williamsburg Bray School Initiative and forged a partnership regarding the future use of the building, known as the Bray-Digges House, which was moved to Colonial Williamsburg's Historic Area in February 2023. The William & Mary Bray School Lab serves as the research home for the initiative, where scholars, descendants and local community members are exploring the history of the school building, its students and their lived experiences.

Inaugural Gates Forum convenes national leaders at William & Mary

Leading figures in U.S. national security and foreign policy convened in December 2022 at William & Mary to kick off the inaugural Gates Forum.

The forum, which was hosted by the Gates Global Policy Center in partnership with Global Research Institute (GRI), brought to Williamsburg prominent policymakers and officials, alongside experts from government, higher education, journalism and the private sector.

Under the leadership of Chancellor Robert M. Gates '65, L.H.D. '98, the forum engaged participants with a singular focus: What concrete actions can the United States take to reimagine its strategic communications capabilities in an era of resurgent great power competition?

To inform their policy recommendations, the conferees drew upon eight original research papers produced by AidData, a research lab at the Global Research Institute (GRI), to understand historical, comparative and forward-looking perspectives on strategic communication and public diplomacy as tools of foreign policy.

William & Mary's iGEM team returns from Paris bearing Gold

William & Mary earned a Gold Medal for its project at the 2022 iGEM Grand Jamboree competition and also won the Best Software & AI Project track. In addition, the W&M team was nominated for Best Math Model and Best Presentation awards.

The Grand Jamboree was held in Paris from Oct. 26-28, 2022. Margaret Saha, Chancellor Professor of Biology and longtime principal advisor to William & Mary's iGEM teams, said W&M teams were competing against an international slate of teams that included the best universities in the world.

"The competition this year was fierce!" Saha said. "The level of the science at this meeting was absolutely astounding."

Construction projects move forward

Progress has been made on several campus construction projects over the last few years, and some campus buildings received new names. William & Mary's Institute for Integrative Conservation, funded by a $19.3 million gift from an anonymous alumna, opened in January 2020. That same year, the Board of Visitors adopted a set of principles and imperatives for the naming and renaming of structures and spaces on campus. As part of that effort, several buildings were renamed: Trinkle Hall became Unity Hall; the Virginia Institute of Marine Science's Maury Hall became York River Hall; Morton Hall became John E. Boswell Hall; The Arcade at Cary Field was named the Arthur A. Matsu Arcade; Taliaferro Hall became Hulon L. Willis Sr. Hall; and Tyler Hall reverted to its previous name, Chancellors Hall. In 2022, the Sadler Center expansion was completed and opened to students. The expanded Sadler Center, with 53,000 square feet of new space, completes a vision conceived decades ago of a centerpiece of activity in the heart of William & Mary's campus. William & Mary's new performing arts facilities are expected to open in the fall of 2023. Thanks to the generosity of a donor, the Wren building was illuminated in 2022. The Wren is illuminated white most of the year and other colors for special or memorial occasions.

W&M commits to cover full tuition and fees for all in-state Pell Grant recipients

Beginning with the 2023-2024 school year, William & Mary will guarantee scholarship aid to cover at least the cost of tuition and fees for all in-state, undergraduate Pell Grant eligible students.

The new program will apply to all in-state undergraduate students enrolled at W&M in fall 2023, including new, returning, first-year and transfer students. The goal is to increase the percentage of in-state undergraduates who are Pell Grant eligible to 20% in four years.

Pell Grants are determined by the federal government through the U.S. Department of Education, and eligibility is determined largely based on income as reported through the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Under the plan, qualifying students will automatically receive the additional scholarship funding to cover total tuition and fees costs. Additionally, Pell-eligible students with demonstrated financial need beyond tuition and fees will receive additional grant or scholarship assistance from W&M to meet that need.

W&M outlines Vision 2026 strategic plan, explores data school

During William & Mary's 2022 Charter Day ceremony, President Katherine A. Rowe outlined the university's Vision 2026 strategic plan. The plan has three aims – to expand W&M's reach, to educate for impact and to evolve to excel – and four areas of focus: data, water, democracy and careers. In focusing on those areas, the university is drawing on distinct strengths of the W&M community in areas where the university already has clear expertise and a competitive advantage in addressing grand challenges. As part of Vision 2026, W&M announced in September 2022 that it was exploring the possibility of establishing a new academic unit in computing and data science. The effort springs from a surge in student interest in applied science, computer science and data science at William & Mary, and a commitment from the university in its strategic plan to support anticipated needs in the Virginia workforce.

W&M marks centennial of Asian and Asian American students

In 1921, Pu-Kao Chen '23 traveled from Shanghai, China, to enroll at William & Mary, becoming the university's first Asian student. Twelve years later, Hatsuye Yamasaki '37 became the first known Asian American woman to attend the university. Generations of Asian and Asian American students, faculty and staff followed — and created their own firsts — over the next 100 years. William & Mary marked that anniversary with a commemoration beginning in the spring of 2021. During the centennial, a new historical marker was unveiled near Zable Stadium to honor Arthur “Art” Matsu '27, W&M's first known Asian American student and the first W&M alumnus to play for the National Football League. The Arcade at Cary Field, was also named the Arthur A. Matsu Arcade in his honor. The centennial culminated in April 2022 with several special events including Asian Centennial Day, which included a masquerade and gala at the Muscarelle Museum of Art, the unveiling of artwork commissioned for the centennial plus the announcement of the inaugural William & Mary Asian Centennial Awards.

Hearth: Memorial to the Enslaved

In May 2022, William & Mary dedicated Hearth: Memorial to the Enslaved, which honors the people whom the university enslaved over the course of 172 years. The memorial and surrounding area reimagine the Jamestown Road pathway to the university's Historic Campus, positioned just across the street from the Office of Undergraduate Admission. The dedication ceremony took place during the university's inaugural Black Alumni Weekend. Many of the people who attended had played a role in the creation of the memorial, including students and faculty who laid the groundwork for research into slavery at W&M. A month later, the memorial served as the site for the university's first in-person Juneteenth celebration, which featured speakers, performers, food trucks, vendors and more. In the fall, new W&M students joined the W&M Honor and Conduct Councils at the Hearth to learn about the university's community standards and take the Community Values Pledge.

Integrative conservation major launched

A new major in integrative conservation became available to William & Mary undergraduates starting in fall 2022, through a new degree program within interdisciplinary studies. The curriculum provides a mix of research, paid internships and teaching, all geared toward developing integrative approaches to conservation that balance conservation of wildlife and ecosystems with human well-being. The emphasis is on research that is co-designed with local communities and partnering conservation organizations and agencies. Human society is dependent on a thriving, living planet — for food, clean air and water, building materials, pharmaceuticals and so much more. Unfortunately, the planet is in a human-caused biodiversity crisis and losing life at an unprecedented rate. Integrative conservation helps students create practical solutions that benefit the planet and people.

Brafferton Tercentennial

During William & Mary's 2023 Charter Day ceremony, the university launched a yearlong commemoration of the 300th anniversary of the Brafferton Indian School, which was constructed in 1723. Passages of the W&M charter were read by current Indigenous students and faculty. Leaders and representatives from nine tribal communities attended the event, and Chief Lynette Allston of the Nottoway Indian Tribe provided a reflection on the Brafferton Indian School. The Brafferton Initiative, which is being led by the Office of Strategic Cultural Partnerships, includes both campus and community events, outreach and partnership with tribal communities, faculty initiatives and a renewed look at how the university can share a more complete history of the Brafferton Indian School.

WILLIAM & MARY

Traditions

Convocation

Continuing a tradition that was reinaugurated during William & Mary's tercentenary in 1993, William & Mary begins each fall with Opening Convocation to celebrate the start of the academic session.

On the first day of classes, faculty, staff and students gather at the Sir Christopher Wren Building to signify the beginning of the academic year and to officially welcome all of our entering William & Mary students.

At the conclusion of the ceremony and the tolling of the Wren Building bell, the president leads the new students in a special procession from the Wren Yard to the Wren portico, where the new students are warmly welcomed by current members of the faculty, staff and student body waiting in the Wren courtyard. A festive campus-wide picnic dinner with live entertainment follows for the entire campus community.

Homecoming

Every October, William & Mary alumni flock to Williamsburg to celebrate and reconnect with classmates and their alma mater. Members of the Tribe, young and old, enjoy four days of parades, academic forums, parties, football and many other events.

In 2021, Homecoming weekend included an in-person Commencement ceremony for the Class of 2020.

Yule Log Ceremony

Right before students take off for Winter Break is the Yule Log ceremony. On a chilly Williamsburg night, the whole student body squeezes into the Wren Courtyard, where festive “cressets” (wood-burning torches) warm the crowd. The students are treated to live holiday music and student speeches explaining a diverse range of holiday traditions. The climax is when the university president takes the stage to lead the audience in a rousing celebration. Afterward, frozen students pile into the Great Hall to toss ceremonial sprigs of holly into the Yule Log fire for good luck. Then it’s hot cider and sugar cookies for everybody.

Charter Day

February brings the annual celebration of William & Mary's Royal Charter — think “Happy Birthday William & Mary.” Charter Day features speakers of note, along with the distribution of honorary degrees and prestigious awards to students, faculty and alumni. In recent years, the weekend has also included a comedy show, sponsored by Alma Mater Productions and the Student Assembly.

One Tribe One Day

William & Mary's One Tribe One Day is more than a day of giving back and paying it forward. It's a beloved annual tradition and a record-breaking, impact-making, community-gathering day of Tribe pride around the globe. Every gift to any area, no matter the size, makes a difference and helps unlock university-wide giving challenges that increase the impact of each gift. Since its inception, OTOD has inspired more than 52,000 donors to give a total of $24.2 million to William & Mary in support of 1,000+ areas across campus. Donors from all 50 states and countries across the globe have participated in the day.

Last Day of Classes

On the last day of classes in the spring, graduating students are invited to ring the ceremonial Wren bell.

Commencement Weekend: The Candlelight Ceremony

The Thursday of Commencement weekend, graduating students are invited to gather for a candle-lighting ceremony. Tradition holds that the seniors select three speakers — one faculty member, one administrator and one fellow student — each of whom has had a close relationship with the class during their years at William & Mary. The atmosphere is fun and nostalgic, culminating in illuminating and raising the candles together as a graduating class. And, of course, with candles aloft, they sing the Alma Mater.

The Walk Across Campus

William & Mary's unique Commencement completes the symbolic circle begun by the Opening Convocation ceremony. Four years after they emerged from the Wren portico to the cheers of their classmates, the graduating students now return in the opposite direction, passing back through the portico dressed in their full graduation regalia. From there, they continue their "Walk Across Campus" to Zable Stadium, where Commencement ceremonies are held.

CHARTERED 1693

COMMENCEMENT

THE LORD BOTETOURT MEDAL

William Carlos Noell II

The Lord Botetourt Medal is presented each year to the undergraduate student who has most distinguished him or herself in scholarship during their time at William & Mary. In 2023, this singular honor is awarded to WILLIAM CARLOS NOEL II.

Carlos is recognized for his scholarship as well as his humility, character, empathy and commitment to inclusion. In the words of an advisor, “Carlos is a rare gem who the academy or the world only has the chance to engage with once in a lifetime.”

Carlos graduates with a Bachelor of Science in a self-designed Social Justice in Medicine major and Biochemistry minor. Carlos diligently pursued research at William & Mary, earning recognition by the Barry Goldwater Scholarship, one of the most prestigious national undergraduate scholarships in the natural sciences, engineering and mathematics. Carlos gave a poster presentation at the American Society of Biochemistry 2023 Annual Meeting and is the first to investigate N2a neuronal cells in the lab of Professor Shantá Hinton, enhancing her research programs as well as contributing to understanding neurological disorders such as dementia.

In addition to a perfect GPA, Carlos has received a plethora of scholarships. Carlos is a Murray 1693 Scholar, Monroe Scholar and WMSURE Scholar. As part of the REACH Undergraduate Research Program, Carlos worked with Dr. Vanessa B. Shepard at VCU Medical School on research focusing on hypertension in Black breast cancer survivors. Carlos is also a Hulon Willis Memorial Scholar, Virginia Space Grant Consortium STEM Bridge Scholar and Phi Beta Kappa inductee. Recently, he was named the Albert and Phyllis Cornell Pre-Medical Awardee. This award, established in honor of the late Dr. Albert Cornell '30 is made annually to two graduating senior premedical students who show great promise to become outstanding physicians.

Carlos co-founded the W&M chapter of MindVersity, an organization focused on mental health, and has advocated for policies that relieve academic stress. Carlos is a music director for the Gentlemen of the College and a member of the Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity.

Carlos was accepted into many prestigious medical schools, including a full scholarship to Vanderbilt University Medical School, and a 90% (the highest provided) scholarship to Harvard University Medical School — a rare honor. William & Mary looks forward with great anticipation to his future in medicine.

THE JAMES FREDERIC CARR MEMORIAL CUP

Sarah J. Larimer

The James Frederic Carr Memorial Cup was established in honor of a William & Mary student who served with distinction in the First World War and lost his life before he could return to graduate. The award recognizes the student who best exemplifies character, scholarship and leadership. The recipient of the 2023 Carr Memorial Cup is SARAH JEAN LARIMER.

Sarah exemplifies the qualities of the Carr Memorial Cup. Recognized by her peers as virtuous and humble, inclusive and collaborative, Sarah embodies integrity and honor.

Sarah is a Monroe Scholar, well-rounded and prodigious in her scholarship. She graduates with a Bachelor of Science with a double major in Data Science and Economics, marked first-rate by a near-perfect 3.92 GPA. As a research assistant in AidData’s Research and Evaluation unit, Sarah geocoded Chinese development financing in the Middle East and South Asia and researched object detection algorithms for a new deep learning software. Sarah has also participated in applied mathematics research. As a Commonwealth Cyber Initiative Fellow, she worked on a team to build a machine learning classification model that could evaluate the quality of roads from satellite imagery.

Showcasing her dedication to success across all realms of pursuit, Sarah served as editor-in-chief of the William & Mary Review, a national literary and art journal, president of Delta Gamma sorority and vice president of Omicron Delta Kappa. Her passion for leadership and creating a sense of community shine clearly through her impact in these organizations. Nominators share that Sarah “accepts no less than her best from herself and pushes her friends to be their best and kindest selves.”

As a member of both the Undergraduate Student Conduct Council and Honor Appeals Board, Sarah is dedicated to restorative justice and preventative measures, reflecting her drive to find and maintain the peace within her community. She also serves as a Connects Peer Mentor, mentoring suspended students, helping students create, achieve and reflect on academic goals so that they thrive upon their return to campus.

One nominator shared that Sarah “gives grace to every person that comes her way, and whether a student is her friend or sitting on the other side of a panel, she makes them feel heard and understood.” Another said, “We all need someone like Sarah in our lives.”

THE THATCHER PRIZE FOR EXCELLENCE IN GRADUATE AND PROFESSIONAL STUDY

Andrew D. Corso

The Thatcher Prize was created in honor of the 21st Chancellor of William & Mary, Margaret, The Lady Thatcher. The award is presented annually to recognize an outstanding student in graduate or professional study. The winner is selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character and service. The recipient of the 2023 Thatcher Prize is ANDREW DERIK CORSO.

Dr. Corso earns his doctoral degree from W&M's Virginia Institute of Marine Science in Fisheries Science and a sub-concentration in Marine Policy. According to one nominator, "His reputation as a scientist 'for all seasons' precedes him among VIMS faculty, staff and students alike: a student highly regarded for his intellect, passion and — perhaps most of all — his kindness and approachability."

Andrew's study area is the Western Antarctic Peninsula, one of the most rapidly warming regions on Earth. His research is the first to document the impacts of climate change on any fish species in this region, which is one of the central locations for U.S. research in Antarctica. His colleagues recognize his work as sophisticated, creative and sharp.

Andrew's cutting-edge research deeply contributes to understanding the effects of climate change on the world's oceans. He has first-authored five publications in highly respected journals and there are more to come, including the description of a new "dragonfish" species he discovered.

In recognition of his academic performance, achievements as an early career scientist and promise for a successful future, Andrew has received numerous fellowships and other awards. In 2021, he was awarded the School of Marine Science Dean's Fellowship Award, which recognizes an outstanding Ph.D. student based on strong academic performance and evidence of engagement in activities that help to broaden the impact of the student's science and training. Most recently, Andrew was awarded a PSECCO Belonging, Accessibility, Justice, Equity, Diversity and Inclusivity (BAJEDI) grant to support his outreach and education activities.

Andrew made a big splash with his "Investigate and Discover (I.D.) Antarctica,'" which reached thousands of grade school students. Andrew is equally admired as an undergraduate instructor at William & Mary, including a course a nominator described as "an absolute masterclass in blending teaching and learning styles."

A nominator wrote, "Andrew is a wonderful example of a student who wrapped his arms around the VIMS and William & Mary missions and contributed in every way that he could."

THE ALGERNON SYDNEY SULLIVAN AWARD

The Sullivan Award, given in the form of a medallion, is in recognition of influence for good, taking into consideration such characteristics of heart, mind, conduct and demonstrating a spirit of love and helpfulness to others. It is awarded each year to two individuals from the graduating student body and to a third person who has a close relationship to the university.

Ephraim A. Takyi

EPHRAIM AMPONSAH TAKYI embodies the Sullivan Award ideals of generosity, kindness and consideration for others. Graduating with a Bachelor of Science with a double major in Kinesiology & Health Sciences and Theatre, Ephraim has excelled through scholarship and performance with a spirit of love and consideration for others.

Bright and talented, Ephraim is a star who lights the way for others. He served in the Office of Undergraduate Admission as a Griffin Ambassador and Arts Panelist, showcasing art and promoting university values to prospective students. One nominator wrote that when working at the office's front desk Ephraim's "consideration and joyful attitude can be felt even over the phone, drawing people in just like he does on stage."

Ephraim has been heavily involved in the theatre department. He starred in "A Chorus Line" and "Bright Star". He also attended the Stella Adler Studio for Acting Musical Theatre Intensive in New York and interned at the Weathervane Theatre. Upon his return to campus he shared his knowledge from the productions he participated in with his friends and colleagues. Ephraim also performed in the ICCA competition group No Ceiling, receiving the award for best choreography. In 2022, the Charles Center awarded him the Catron Grant for Artistic Development.

His peers recognize Ephraim for his exceptional talent and also his graciousness in lifting others to the stage. A nominator shared that Ephraim, "makes sure that every student that comes to our campus knows that there is a place for them within our community and a chance for them to express their gifts, talents and artistry."

Encapsulating the Sullivan Award's recognition of influence for good, much of Ephraim's work is dedicated to amplifying social justice, including a 2021 performance in honor of Hearth: Memorial to the Enslaved at a Lemon Project event. He later shared with the Flat Hat, "We need to keep fighting, so the norm isn't even rightful conviction, but the end of discrimination, racism, and specifically police brutality...That's why I sang 'Glory' by John Legend ft. Common because I wanted others to understand that it's not over and we haven't yet cried 'GLORY!'"

THE ALGERNON SYDNEY SULLIVAN AWARD

Michaela-Katherine G. Taylor

When MICHAELA-KATHERINE GABRIELLE TAYLOR first arrived on campus, a mentor recalled being “struck not only by her poise and her warmth, but also by the eagerness with which she approached becoming an active, engaged member of the W&M community.” Michaela-Katherine, known as Mika, is recognized by her colleagues, peers and professors for her hardworking and gracious character.

Mika graduates with a Bachelor of Arts in Global Studies with a concentration in Asian and Middle Eastern Studies, further focused on East Asian Studies. Raised across England, Germany, Korea and Japan, she has a unique perspective on the world and a desire to share it with others. Mika served in the Global Education Office as a peer advisor, guiding students through the study abroad process, conducting workshops and promoting study abroad opportunities on campus. She was selected as an International Student Advisory Board member and International Peer Leader, assisting international students as they transitioned to W&M.

Mika’s work ethic earned her colleagues’ deep gratitude: For Mika, no job is too small or too onerous. She has worked as a resident advisor, peer advisor and served on advisory boards for the Dean of Students and the Provost. She has also supported her department, volunteering to help with communications and social media, actively working to create feelings of comradery amongst students. Even during study abroad, Mika sought out ways to uplift others, including volunteering to help South Korean children learn English. Reflecting her intellectual curiosity and her spirit of helpfulness, Mika was recently awarded a Fulbright Scholarship.

One nominator described a phenomenon at the Reves Center as the “Mika Effect”: the simple mention of Mika’s name elicits a smile then a tiny pause of shared recognition and appreciation — and then the conversation continues. Her colleagues appreciate Mika for her empathy, caring and dependability — qualities that “make her a superb writer and a wonderful human being.”

A mentor put it simply: “Her heart, mind and conduct have marked campus and the world-at-large for the better.”

Deborah Cheesebro

Associate Vice President for Public Safety and Chief of William & Mary Police DEBORAH CHEESEBRO, Ph.D. is retiring after nearly a decade at the university and over fifty years of law enforcement with a legacy as a transformational and compassionate leader.

Deb came to W&M in 2014 to oversee the police department and the offices of emergency management, risk management and environmental health and safety. She led the growth of the police department to 24 full-time sworn officers and transformed the department’s policing philosophy and culture. She established a values-based approach to policing, expanding the department’s commitments to integrity, professionalism, community engagement and fair and impartial policing.

With a spirit energized by innovation, Deb modernized the department through revised policies and procedures; strengthened professional training and career development; reorganized organizational structure; revised recruiting, hiring and promotional processes and instilled a focus on qualitative response to community needs.

Critically, Deb overhauled the department’s emergency communications center, including transitioning to fiber optics technology to enhance reliability. Her colleagues agree that “Deb has worked tirelessly to make the W&M community safe, and also to make sure that the community feels safe.”

Deb was recognized by the Office of Diversity & Inclusion in 2019-20 for “her efforts ... making the department more demographically similar to the community and helping build tremendous relationships.” In 2021, WMPD received the inaugural Building Connections and Bridging Differences Team Award for its work promoting compassion, empathy and respectful discourse.

Vice President of Student Affairs Ginger Ambler shared, “Rarely have I known someone as selfless as Deb Cheesebro. ... She has devoted her life’s work to serving the public, to mentoring her colleagues and young officers, to engaging meaningfully with those whom she serves, and (if necessary) to sacrificing her own safety for the sake of another. There is no greater gift she could have given this W&M community.”

The Sullivan Award is given in honor of Deb’s meaningful and enduring influence on countless students, colleagues and friends at William & Mary. Her leadership, empathy, good humor and years of devoted service have changed us all for the better.

THE THOMAS ASHLEY GRAVES, JR. AWARD FOR SUSTAINED EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING

The Thomas Ashley Graves, Jr. Award is named for the twenty-third President of William & Mary and recognizes sustained excellence in teaching. The recipient of the award is selected annually by the President from nominations submitted by each of the academic deans.

Inga Carboni

A devoted teacher, Associate Professor of Business Inga Carboni joined the faculty of William & Mary in 2007. Her innovative and inclusive teaching and research will have a sustained impact on the Mason School of Business community.

Recognized as a knowledgeable and passionate educator, Professor Carboni uses innovative techniques to catalyze learning. For example, she worked with the W&M School of Education to develop an avatar-based online exercise to teach Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Belonging (DEIB) skills and offer real-time practice sessions to learn how to address micro-aggressions, lack of inclusion and other DEIB principles safely and constructively. She also participates in the Management Consulting Advisory Board and has worked with business leaders to incorporate industry expertise into her classroom. Live case studies provide students with a real-world application of theoretical management principles. In addition to hosting leaders as guest speakers, Professor Carboni engages with board members to provide opportunities for student mentorship and coaching, helping students polish and fine-tune their communication and presentation skills.

Her research interests include networks and networking, diversity and inclusion, building and managing relationships and leadership. Professor Carboni focuses on gender differences in and the impact of those differences on individuals and organizations. Her work has appeared in several journals and books, including Human Resource Management Journal, European Journal of Work and Organizational Psychology, Group Dynamics, Organizational Research Methods, Journal of Management Education and The Organizational Network Fieldbook: Best Practices, Techniques and Exercises to Drive Organizational Innovation and Performance.

Professor Carboni is a thoughtful and dedicated teacher who seeks to understand her students' perspectives. She encourages students to seek out answers, appreciate different perspectives and learn how to navigate situations in which the answer is not always apparent. Her courses are interactive and relevant and she fosters an engaged and inclusive classroom environment.

For her dedication to students, teaching and William & Mary, we honor Inga Carboni with the 2023 Thomas Ashley Graves, Jr. Award for Sustained Excellence in Teaching.

Carla Buck

Former William & Mary President Thomas Graves stated: “William & Mary ... needs to be excellent ... both inside the classroom and outside the classroom.” Carla Buck, Associate Professor of Hispanic Studies, fulfills that vision.

Professor Buck has taught almost every course imaginable at all levels of the Hispanic Studies curriculum and also developed new courses in women's studies — including writers, filmmakers and cultural agents from both Spain and Latin America. She has been a member and chair of the International Studies Advisory Committee and an advisor for the Spanish National Honors Society since 2001.

Professor Buck has led more study abroad summer programs than any other member of her department, including the Galway, Ireland program. She served consecutive terms as program director for the former Morelia, Mexico-based summer program. She co-founded the Cádiz summer research program and designed a memorable embedded study away capstone seminar for students in the Basque Country of Spain.

Her students, one of whom is now a colleague, praise her leadership effusively. One wrote, “It was [... during the study abroad program in Cádiz, Spain, with Professor Buck] that I learned more about the Spanish language, life outside the US, and myself than I did in any other season of my undergraduate career.” Another said, “[She] truly embodies the close-knit and enthusiastic Hispanic Studies department at William & Mary.” A third wrote: Profesora Buck “empowers and connects students to so many opportunities that propel their Hispanic Studies journeys beyond what they ever expected ... She will be so dearly missed when she retires at the end of this academic year.”

Like her adoring students, Professor Buck's colleagues will miss her dearly. They send congratulations on her exemplary 36-year teaching career and thank her for her unwavering dedication to her program, department, the university, and most especially, her students.

For her dedication to students, teaching and William & Mary, we honor Carla O. Buck with the 2023 Thomas Ashley Graves, Jr. Award for Sustained Excellence in Teaching.

THE CHARLES JOSEPH DUKE, JR. AND VIRGINIA WELTON DUKE AWARD

Annually, an endowment from Charles and Ann Duke makes possible an award to an outstanding employee of the university.

The award is given in memory of Mr. Duke's parents for their years of distinguished and loving service to William & Mary.

Charles and Ann's daughter, Emily, now represents the family during the annual Duke Award ceremony.

Shelia Harris

SHELIA HARRIS has served as a vital force for continuity and excellence at the President's House through the administrations of the past five presidents of William & Mary. Shelia has managed the house — one of the university's three oldest buildings, dating back to 1732 — and its adjoining guest cottage with precision, leadership and grace.

The President's House serves as a home for presidents, their families and even their pets. It is also the site of countless events. As Executive House Manager, Shelia organizes everything from day-to-day maintenance to major events such as formal lunches, dinners and receptions. With steadfast efficiency and warmth, she oversees daily operations at the house — answering the door and phone and coordinating arrangements with numerous campus departments — ensuring the university's president and spouse can focus on the strategic work of the university.

Nominators shared that Shelia is a truly exceptional host. She researches and remembers individual preferences so that all guests feel a sense of belonging as part of the W&M community. One nominator shared, "Shelia has worked her magic always with a smile and a warm welcome to all who come to the President's House."

Shelia knows the history of the President's House well and treats it as the architectural treasure it is. She can often be overheard sharing with guests the stories of unique period pieces.

Part living quarters and part public space, Shelia makes certain that the President's House is comfortable and accommodating. Nominators note Shelia's compartment of calm amid competing demands that vary daily, change at a moment's notice and never occur quite the same way twice.

President Taylor Reveley, who lived in the President's House for 10 years, described in his letter of nomination Shelia's deft management of people, objects and activities as "leading and managing with grace and effectiveness."

The university is honored by Shelia's tireless generosity and commitment to W&M values. Shelia is the "firmly planted anchor of excellence" of the President's House, and an example of distinction in the William & Mary community.

Paula Perry

Having spent 42 of her 43 years at W&M in the physics department, PAULA PERRY advocates tirelessly for graduate students. She has become an irreplaceable administrator and friend to numerous faculty and staff.

As the Graduate Program Coordinator for physics, Paula manages the program's fiscal administration, records, course scheduling and registration. She supports graduate recruitment and admissions, including serving as a liaison for applicants. As a former graduate student wrote, "Paula is simply the rock of the department; she set the quiet foundation for our success as students."

In total, 474 graduates have flourished thanks to Paula's kind but firm mentorship. Paula often acted as a go-between for students and faculty members navigating complex processes so that no one missed a deadline or paycheck.

A former graduate student wrote, "You are trying to master so many intricate technical details about the mysteries of the universe that it is easy to lose sight of the academic goal of graduation. Paula is the force that keeps us on track with the university and pushes us towards that tangible milestone. Where would we be without her to guide us through that process and assure us that we can get there?"

Paula's colleagues noted her "amazing patience" as she kept 30 faculty members, 53 graduate students and 105 undergraduate majors "on their toes with humor and grace." Nominators applauded Paula's tactful skill with keeping everyone in the department on track. One joked, "physicists can be a demanding and mercurial bunch. Another wrote, "Paula's ability to wrangle the horde of personalities on display in every cohort of physics students is a wonder of the world!"

Paula inspires gratitude from faculty, staff and students alike, pragmatic and unflappable no matter the challenge. Her dedication to William & Mary is matched only by the physics department's devotion to her. "She has done so much to provide a warm, friendly, caring, efficient and human atmosphere," a nominator wrote, "She is at the core of why it's such a joy to be a member of this department."
