HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

M. SANJAYAN

Doctor of Science

M. Sanjayan: With relentless optimism, you promote the well-being of our planet. An inspiring scientist, journalist and Chief Executive Officer for one of the world's premier conservation organizations, you have dedicated your life to the discovery of core truths about the Earth and all who live here. This pursuit — the dissemination of truth via scientific inquiry — is one of the most important public goods to which higher education is dedicated. It is the reason we celebrate you today.

Born in Sri Lanka and raised in the interior of West Africa, you grew up watching scores of wildlife films and nature documentaries. You pursued biology and ecology at the University of Oregon and earned your Ph.D. at the University of California, Santa Cruz, under renowned conservation biologist Michael Soulé.

A masterful storyteller, you translate complex environmental challenges into hope-filled, compelling messages for a broad audience. You contribute on-air to CBS Evening News and earned an Emmy nomination for your story on elephant poaching. You have hosted over a dozen award-winning documentaries for PBS, BBC, National Geographic, Discovery and Showtime. Your most recent series in partnership with PBS and BBC — Changing Planet — explores Earth's most valuable ecosystems. Your gift for building shared understanding once led Outside Magazine to quip that you are “without a doubt, the only person on earth with both a Ph.D. in gopher genetics and an agent at the celebrity-talent powerhouse IMG.”

In 2019, you took the helm of Conservation International. With offices in 29 countries and a focus on the Global South, Conservation International combats climate change via wide-ranging partnerships across communities, the private sector, higher education and governments.

You galvanized philanthropic support, raising $2.7 billion during two capital campaigns. Under your leadership, the nonprofit has launched innovative tools, such as the irrecoverable carbon atlas. Pioneering blue carbon projects have increased the resiliency of our coastal ecosystems. Public-private partnerships have restored forests around the world.

Your achievements catch the attention of global leaders. His Royal Highness Prince William invited you to serve as a trustee for his environmental nonprofit, The Earthshot Prize. You advise the Clinton Global Initiative, serve as a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and have held appointments at the University of California, Los Angeles, Arizona State University and the Aspen Institute. In 2023, TIME recognized you as one of the world's most influential climate leaders. Your scientific research has won laurels, with publications in top-tier journals such as Science, Nature and Conservation Biology.

M. Sanjayan, your conservation leadership helps our planet and those who live on it to flourish. It is fitting that William & Mary honor you during our signature Year of the Environment. By the virtue of the power vested in me by the Board of Visitors and the Ancient Royal Charter of The College of William & Mary in Virginia, I hereby confer upon you the degree of Doctor of Science, Honoris Causa.

HOUSE OF STUART

THE CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES

In this, the 332nd year of its founding, William & Mary will award approximately 3187 degrees. They include some 1972 undergraduate degrees and 1215 graduate degrees.

Of the undergraduate degrees, approximately 867 are the Bachelor of Arts; 839 are the Bachelor of Science; 249 are the Bachelor of Business Administration; and 17 are the Bachelor of Education.

Of the graduate degrees, approximately 298 are the Master of Business Administration; 93 are the Master of Accounting; 30 are the Master of Arts; 185 are the Master of Education; 242 are the Master of Science; 34 are the Master of Arts in Education; 18 are the Master of Public Policy; 11 are the Educational Specialist; 11 are the Master of Laws; 200 are the Juris Doctor; 26 are the Doctor of Education; and 67 are the Doctor of Philosophy.

PRIZES AND AWARDS

Student Awards

The Lord Botetourt Medal is awarded annually to the graduating senior who has attained the greatest distinction in scholarship.

The James Frederic Carr Memorial Cup is awarded to a graduating senior on the basis of character, scholarship and leadership. It was established as a memorial to James Frederic Carr, a former William & Mary student who served in World War I and lost his life before he could return to William & Mary.

The Thatcher Prize for Excellence in Graduate and Professional Study is given to an outstanding graduate student completing an advanced degree in Arts & Sciences, Education, Marine Science, Business Administration or Law, and is awarded on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership and service. Initiated in 2000 by William & Mary, the award honors Margaret, The Lady Thatcher, 21st Chancellor of the university, in recognition of her seven-year term of service.

The Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award, given in the form of a medallion, is in recognition of influence for good, taking into consideration such characteristics of heart, mind and conduct as evince a spirit of love and helpfulness to others. It is awarded each year to two members of the student body and to a third person possessing the characteristics specified by the donors.

Faculty & Staff Awards

The Thomas Ashley Graves, Jr. Award is presented annually to a member of the faculty in recognition of sustained excellence in teaching. To honor Thomas A. Graves, Jr., 23rd President of William & Mary, the award has been endowed by alumni and friends of the former president.

The Charles Joseph Duke, Jr. and Virginia Welton Duke Award is awarded annually to an outstanding William & Mary employee or one contracted to provide auxiliary services. It has been endowed by Charles Bryan Duke and Ann Evans Duke in memory of Charles and Virginia Duke for their years of distinguished and loving service to The College of William and Mary in Virginia.

The Values in Action Award was established in the spring of 2021 by two anonymous donors. It recognizes William & Mary faculty and staff who exemplify the university's values of belonging, curiosity, excellence, flourishing, integrity, respect and service.

THE COLLEGE AND ROYAL COATS OF ARMS

William & Mary was the first American institution of higher learning to be granted a royal coat of arms issued on May 14, 1694 by the College of Arms in London. The College Coat of Arms depicts college buildings in silver on a green field with a golden sun against a blue sky. The seal does not represent actual William & Mary buildings because the coat of arms was issued before construction began on what is now called the Wren Building. The royal charter calls for a “common seal” for William & Mary and that original seal included the coat of arms in the center.

The two smaller shields represent the royal arms of the House of Stuart, from which Mary II was descended, and of King William III (of England) & II (of Scotland). The escutcheon depicting a golden lion on a blue field appears on King William’s coat of arms as a reference to the royal house of Nassau to which William belonged.

THE COLLEGE MACE

The College Mace is carried by the president of the Student Assembly, or a designated representative, at official William & Mary convocations as a symbol of the authority vested in the rector of the university and delegated to the president of the university.

Designed and handcrafted by the Gorham Company of New York, the mace is made of sterling silver. It was given to William & Mary by alumni and students at Charter Day on February 8, 1923, upon the 230th anniversary of the granting of the Royal Charter.

The mace is four feet long. Its 12 key sections commemorate many of the people and events in William & Mary’s 300-year history. They include: an American eagle, symbolizing liberty and freedom of thought; a sphere, symbolizing unity; the College coat of arms; arms representing the early chancellors of the university; the seven seals of Colonial Virginia; colored enamel emblems including flags and arms of Great Britain, Virginia, and the United States; full-size reproductions of three William & Mary medals; the names of 38 distinguished alumni; the globe, with the continents outlined; the names of the colonial governors of Virginia; American Indian head emblems commemorating the Brafferton Indian School, one of the three William & Mary departments before the American Revolution; and the names of the presidents of William & Mary.

THE MARISCHAL MACE

The Marischal Mace is carried by an elected representative of the Graduate Council of the Student Assembly at official William & Mary convocations.

A gift from the University of Aberdeen in honor of William & Mary’s 300th anniversary, the mace was presented by the University’s Principal and Vice Chancellor, Professor John Maxwell Irvine. The University of Aberdeen is comprised of King’s College (founded 1495) and Marischal College (founded 1593), where William & Mary’s founder and first president, the Reverend James Blair, was educated.

The mace, a silver replica of one of the two maces carried by Sacrists at traditional university ceremonies in Scotland, was first carried in the academic procession at the Charter Day ceremony in February 1993.

WILLIAM & MARY/UNIVERSITY OF ST ANDREWS JOINT DEGREE PROGRAMME COAT OF ARMS

JOINT DEGREE PROGRAMME
COAT OF ARMS

This Coat of Arms was officially recognized in 2015 by the Scottish Heraldry Board. It was designed by two Joint Degree students, Abigail Gomulkiewicz and Andrew Hashim (both Class of 2015) to be a unifying symbol of the joint venture. The Coat of Arms presents William & Mary’s griffin and St Andrews’ dragon together holding up the book of knowledge; the third golden key rising from the other two represents the Joint Programme as a third entity growing from the two distinct universities. The Latin motto means “seek knowledge constantly.”

BADGES AND CHAINS OF OFFICE

CHANCELLOR'S BADGE AND
CHAIN OF OFFICE

PRESIDENT'S BADGE AND
CHAIN OF OFFICE

RECTOR'S BADGE
AND CHAIN OF OFFICE

The Chancellor's Badge and Chain of Office were presented to William & Mary by the Society of the Alumni at the investiture of Chancellor Warren E. Burger at Charter Day on February 7, 1987.

The Rector's Badge and Chain of Office were presented to the university by Anne Dobie Peebles '44 upon her retirement from the Board of Visitors. She served 13 years on the Board, the last three as rector.

The President's Badge and Chain of Office were first worn by President W. Taylor Reveley III in 2018. The badge and chain of office were gifts from President Reveley to the university in memory and honor of those William & Mary presidents who preceded him and those who will follow.

Each piece was handcrafted by the firm of Thomas Fattorini, Ltd. of Birmingham, England, and features an enameled depiction of the coat-of-arms of William & Mary, issued in 1694 by the College of Arms (heraldry) in London as specified in the royal charter. The President's badge is crafted of silver and gold; the Chancellor's badge of silver and enamel and the Rector's of silver and gold.

PASSING OF THE EMBLEMS OF OFFICE

On the first verse of the Alma Mater, as a public recognition of the ongoing tradition and vitality of William & Mary, the president of the Senior Class of 2025 will present the Senior Class Chain of Office to the president of the Class of 2026. On the last verse, the College Mace is presented to the incoming president of the Student Assembly by the outgoing Student Assembly president, and the Marischal Mace is presented to the incoming Graduate Council president by the outgoing Graduate Council president. With this act, the 2024-25 Session is officially concluded. Bearing their respective maces, the new Student Assembly president, followed by the new Graduate Council president, will lead the Official Party and faculties from the stadium.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The ceremonial robes worn in the academic procession speak by their shapes and their colors of the breadth and intricate structure of the academic world. Against the basic black of caps and gowns worn by the students receiving bachelor's and master's degrees, the colors of diverse universities and academic fields stand in high relief. The gowns themselves are of different shape—note especially the sleeves—for bachelors, masters and doctors. The typical American cap is flat with a tassel draped over the front edge, but some universities in the United States and abroad use caps that are softly peaked or round and stiff. Hoods, too, differ in shape for each of the traditional degrees. The lining of the hood announces by its color the university conferring the degree—note the green, gold and silver of William & Mary. William & Mary's distinctive green doctoral robe was first worn by graduates at Commencement 2002. With an open front in the tradition of the British universities, the piping on the chevrons identifies the degree conferred (dark blue for the Ph.D., light blue for the Ed.D. and purple for the J.D.). The edge of all of the hoods as well as the chevrons and piping on academic gowns mark the field of study according to the following color scheme:

	Agriculture		Engineering
	Arts, Letters, Humanities		Fine Arts, Architecture
	Commerce, Business		Journalism
	Economics		Law
	Education		Library Science
	Medicine		Public Administration
	Music		Science
	Oratory		Social Work
	Philosophy		Theology
	Physical Education

HONORARY ALUMNI

Chosen by the Alumni Association Board of Directors for a distinguished record of service, support, advocacy and commitment on behalf of William & Mary, the Honorary Alumna/Alumnus joins the procession of undergraduates from the Wren Building to Zable Stadium and in the Academic Procession. Honorary Alumna/Alumnus for 2025 are:

Kathleen R. Clem
Linda A. Knight

HONORARY MARSHALS

Each year the members of the senior class select individuals to serve as honorary marshals for their class. Chosen for their contributions to the class, the marshals lead the procession of graduating students from the Wren Building to Zable Stadium and in the Academic Procession. Honorary marshals for 2025 are:

Cheryl Dickter
Psychological Sciences

STUDENT REFLECTIONS

This year's student reflections are offered by Momen Zahid, a senior from Ashburn, Virginia, who graduates today with a Bachelor of Science, having majored in Biology and Data Science. Momen has balanced the rigors of NCAA Division 1 Athletics with his passion for STEM research, leadership and advocacy. In his time as an undergraduate student, Momen played football for the Tribe, served as a Student Representative to the Board of Visitors' Committee on the Student Experience, mentored first-generation and low-income students and championed his peers through the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. He also served as a leader for Athlete-Academic Integration in the Biology department. A member of the Muslim Student Association and Undersecretary of Religious Diversity in the Student Assembly, Momen helped secure halal dining accommodations and organized campus-wide Ramadan Iftars. He has consistently appeared on the CAA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll and the Dean's List, and received the Provost Award for Academic Excellence during his time as a student. Momen is honored to celebrate this milestone alongside his fellow graduates and looks forward to continuing his football career and moving on to the WWE!

SENIOR CLASS GIFT

The 2025 Senior Class Gift supports various aspects of William & Mary. Senior class members either make an unrestricted gift for William & Mary's most pressing needs, or designate their gift to different areas including academic departments, student organizations and athletics. A cement paver commemorating the Class of 2025's gift will be placed in the brick sidewalk near the Sunken Garden in the area known as the "Senior Walk." Thank you to the Class of 2025 for supporting the future of William & Mary.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

William & Mary acknowledges the Indigenous peoples who are the original inhabitants of the lands our campus is on today – The Cheroenhaka (Nottoway), Chickahominy, Eastern Chickahominy, Mattaponi, Monacan, Nansemond, Nottoway, Pamunkey, Patowomeck, Upper Mattaponi and Rappahannock tribes – and pay our respect to their tribal members past and present.

ALMA MATER

Hark the students' voices swelling,
Strong and true and clear
Alma Mater's love they're telling
Ringing far and near.

CHORUS

William and Mary loved of old
Hark upon the gale,
Hear the thunder of our chorus
Alma Mater hail!

God, our Father, hear our voices
Listen to our cry
Bless the college of our fathers
Let her never die.

– James Southall Wilson (1902)

ACADEMIC STRUCTURE

BOARD OF VISITORS

The Board of Visitors is the governing body for William & Mary. The Governor of Virginia appoints individuals for a term of four years. Individuals may serve no more than two consecutive terms. The 17 members of the Board of Visitors meet 4–5 times each year to discuss matters of long-term planning and budget issues for William & Mary. The Board of Visitors regularly engages the campus community through its eight committees and the alumni community through participation at annual and special events.

PRESIDENT Katherine A. Rowe

The President establishes the strategic direction of the university. For more than three centuries, William & Mary has enjoyed the leadership of presidents of surpassing vision and accomplishment. Katherine A. Rowe became William & Mary's 28th President on July 1, 2018. Nationally recognized as an innovator in higher education, Rowe is a champion for the importance of the liberal arts, entrepreneurship and strengthening education-workforce pathways.

CHANCELLOR Robert M. Gates '65, L.H.D. '98

William & Mary's Royal Charter of 1693 establishes the position of chancellor. The position is honorary and ceremonial, appointed by the Board of Visitors for a seven-year term. George Washington served as the university's first American chancellor. The Honorable Robert M. Gates '65, L.H.D. '98, was named William & Mary's 24th chancellor on February 3, 2012. He was re-invested for a second term on February 8, 2019. Chancellor Gates is the first alumnus to hold this position in the university's modern era.

PROVOST Peggy Agouris

Peggy Agouris became William & Mary's sixth provost on July 1, 2019. A prolific researcher and scholar with a long career as faculty member and academic leader, Provost Agouris recently championed the university's successful effort to establish the new School of Computing, Data Sciences & Physics —the first new school at W&M in 55 years. The Provost is the chief academic officer of William & Mary and reports directly to the president. Her office is responsible for managing all academic and research programs as well as academic budgets; overseeing institutional planning and space allocation; and promoting faculty development across all academic units.

DEANS

Seven deans report to the Provost. Each dean is responsible for providing leadership to their unit in accordance with the unit's own mission and vision. Academic deans take special care to focus on educating students within their respective academic units and supporting faculty in achieving outcomes in teaching and research. The School of Computing, Data Sciences & Physics will open on July 1, 2025, led by Dean Douglas C. Schmidt.

Arts & Sciences The faculty and programs within Arts & Sciences are led by Dean Suzanne Raitt. In over two decades of service to William & Mary, Dr. Raitt served as an award-winning scholar, teacher, faculty leader and administrator before assuming her new role as dean in 2023. At William & Mary, every new undergraduate entering the university begins as a student in the Arts & Sciences, which makes it the largest academic unit on campus, offering a wide array of undergraduate, master's and Ph.D. programs.

The Raymond A. Mason School of Business is led by Dean Todd A. Mooradian. A former dean of the University of Louisville's College of Business, in 2022 Dean Mooradian returned to the Mason School, where he had first served as a faculty member and, later, as an associate dean. He now serves as the dean and T.C. and Elizabeth Clark Professor of Business Administration. Established in 1968, the business school offers high-quality educational programs at the undergraduate, graduate and professional levels.

The School of Education is led by Dean Robert C. Knoeppel. A longtime educator and well-known scholar on educational finance, Dean Knoeppel previously served as dean of the College of Education at the University of South Florida. The School of Education's mission is to prepare transformative leaders for a rapidly changing world and educational landscape. Established as a distinct entity in 1962, the school today accounts for nearly a third of the master's degrees and almost half of all doctoral degrees awarded at William & Mary each year.

William & Mary Law School is led by Dean A. Benjamin Spencer, a leading expert in federal jurisdiction and civil procedure. He assumed leadership of the school in 2020, bringing with him a wealth of experience from his tenure at such institutions as the University of Richmond School of Law, Washington & Lee University School of Law and the University of Virginia School of Law. Established in 1779, William & Mary Law School was the first institution in the United States to provide professional legal education. Its mission revolves around developing Citizen Lawyers through comprehensive professional training, serving the community through the provision of legal services, and engaging in impactful scholarly research.

The Batten School of Coastal & Marine Sciences is led by Dean and Director D. Derek Aday, who also serves as the director Virginia Institute of Marine Science (VIMS). A prominent ecologist, Dean Aday previously held leadership roles at NC State University and with the United States Geological Survey's Climate Adaptation Science Center. Dean Aday's visionary leadership has significantly fortified the bond between the Batten School and the broader William & Mary community. Uniquely positioned as both an independent state agency and a school at William & Mary, the Batten School & VIMS are among the world's largest and most respected coastal and marine institutions and national leaders in the production of actionable science for coastal communities, advice for policy makers, and education and training for students and the public.

William & Mary Libraries are led by Dean Carrie L. Cooper. She has served as Dean of University Libraries since 2011. The Earl Gregg Swem Library's physical spaces have evolved under her leadership with the addition of the Reeder Media Center. Library services have expanded with new infrastructure for digitization that make unique collections, and the scholarship generated by our community, increasingly accessible to scholars worldwide. William & Mary's first library dates to 1698, when Virginia's royal governor, Sir Francis Nicholson, donated his personal library of more than 200 volumes. Today, the library system holds more than 1.5 million items across its general collections, the Special Collections Research Center, and four affiliate campus libraries: the Hargis Library at the Batten School and VIMS, the Learning Resource Center at the School of Education, the McLeod Business Library and the Wolf Law Library.

W&M and Colonial Williamsburg partner to research, relocate, interpret 18th-century Bray School

Researchers from William & Mary and Colonial Williamsburg announced in 2021 the discovery of the nation's oldest extant building dedicated to the education of enslaved and free Black children. The two institutions established the Williamsburg Bray School Initiative and forged a partnership regarding the future use of the building, which was moved to Colonial Williamsburg's Historic Area in February 2023. The William & Mary Bray School Lab serves as the research home for the initiative, where scholars, descendants and local community members are exploring the history of the school building, its students and their lived experiences. In November 2024, hundreds gathered on the lawn of the Art Museums of Colonial Williamsburg for the school's formal dedication. The restoration of the Bray School and the work of William & Mary's Bray School Lab have received significant media attention, including a front-page story in The Washington Post and segments on the TODAY show.

Williamsburg, Va. — Until Cassin Merkle's step-off inside the 17th-century building and passed, as if it were the wide footprints had been worn down over the centuries, the school at the base of the staircase, flanked by a wall next to a brick fireplace was a copy of a letter from the Civil War, in flowing script, the names of the children who attended the school that year. There of the children and were few. Two-generations were enslaved.

$30M gift to honor former U.S. Defense Secretary Robert Gates

In spring 2024, the university announced that a $30 million gift from an anonymous alumna will pay tribute to former U.S. Secretary of Defense and current university Chancellor Robert M. Gates '65, L.H.D. '98 with the first academic building in the nation to bear his name.

The W&M Foundation, which owns and operates the currently vacant Brown Hall property, will partner with the university to transform the existing structure and create Robert M. Gates Hall. The building will serve as a hub for research and teaching that spans disciplines, addressing global challenges such as economic development and inequality, geopolitical conflict, national security and conservation.

A LEED-certified, state-of-the-art facility, Gates Hall will be home to three university-wide centers: the Global Research Institute, the Institute for Integrative Conservation and the Whole of Government Center of Excellence. In October 2024, a ceremonial groundbreaking was held for the hall.

W&M's iGEM teams win gold

The 2022, 2023 and 2024 iGEM teams returned from the world's premier synthetic biology competition bearing gold. The 2022 team earned a gold medal for its project at the iGEM Grand Jamboree and also won the Best Software & AI Project track.

The next year, the W&M team topped all other undergraduate teams from the United States in the Grand Jamboree. By developing a project related to soil degradation, the W&M team earned a gold medal and landed in the top 10 teams.

In 2024, the team tackled an understudied area of synthetic biology — satellite phages — to earn a gold medal and finish in the top 10 undergraduate teams.

Construction projects move forward

In the four past years, William & Mary has embarked on major efforts to modernize and expand spaces on the university's beautiful campus. In 2022, the Sadler Center expansion opened to students. With an added 53,000 square feet, the renovated building fulfills a decades-long vision as a centerpiece of activity in the heart of campus. William & Mary's new performing arts facilities opened in the fall of 2023, and the Muscarelle Museum of Art at The Martha Wren Briggs Center for the Visual Arts opened in spring 2025.

In 2022, William & Mary announced a new era of living and learning spaces on campus. Over the course of 10 years, the university will renovate or replace 80% of its campus residences and provide two new, modern dining spaces to completely transform the on-campus experiences. Phase one of the $700-plus million comprehensive housing and dining facilities project began in summer 2023 and includes new housing for 935 students at the West Woods site as well as housing for 269 students in Cedar Hall, adjacent to Lemon and Hardy halls along Jamestown Road.

The first part of the West Woods project — West Woods 1 — includes a 50,000-square-foot dining hall (West Woods Commons) and four residence halls (Poplar Hall, Maple Hall, Oak Hall and Pine Hall). Those facilities are expected to open in fall 2025, and a pedestrian bridge is being installed to connect them to the university's student life neighborhood. The second part of the project – West Woods 2 – includes the redevelopment of the Randolph Complex, which is expected to be completed in fall 2027.

W&M commits to cover full tuition and fees for all in-state Pell Grant recipients

Beginning with the 2023-2024 school year, William & Mary committed to guaranteeing scholarship aid to cover at least the cost of tuition and fees for all in-state, undergraduate Pell Grant-eligible students.

The goal was to increase the percentage of in-state undergraduates who are Pell Grant eligible to 20% in four years. That goal was achieved in 2024.

The program is part of W&M's continuing efforts to expand access and enhance outcomes for high-achieving, limited-income students. In fall 2023, the university launched the Commonwealth Impact Partnership Program in coordination with Virginia high schools to nominate students for a scholarship and mentoring program that covers the full cost of in-state tuition and fees. That same semester, the university announced a $2.5-million endowment that supports Lighting the Way scholarships for out-of-state, Pell Grant-eligible students. The scholarships fully cover the cost of each recipient's attendance when combined with a Pell Grant and university funding.

$100M gift establishes W&M's Batten School of Coastal & Marine Sciences

In July 2024, William & Mary announced a transformational $100 million gift from philanthropist Jane Batten HON '17, L.H.D. '19 to establish the Batten School of Coastal & Marine Sciences.

The gift positions W&M's Batten School & VIMS as the premier destination for developing solutions to today's most pressing environmental challenges — building on the university's strong scientific reputation and unmatched expertise in coastal resilience.

It was the biggest and boldest gift ever given to a university for a school dedicated to coastal and marine sciences. It was also the largest gift in W&M's history.

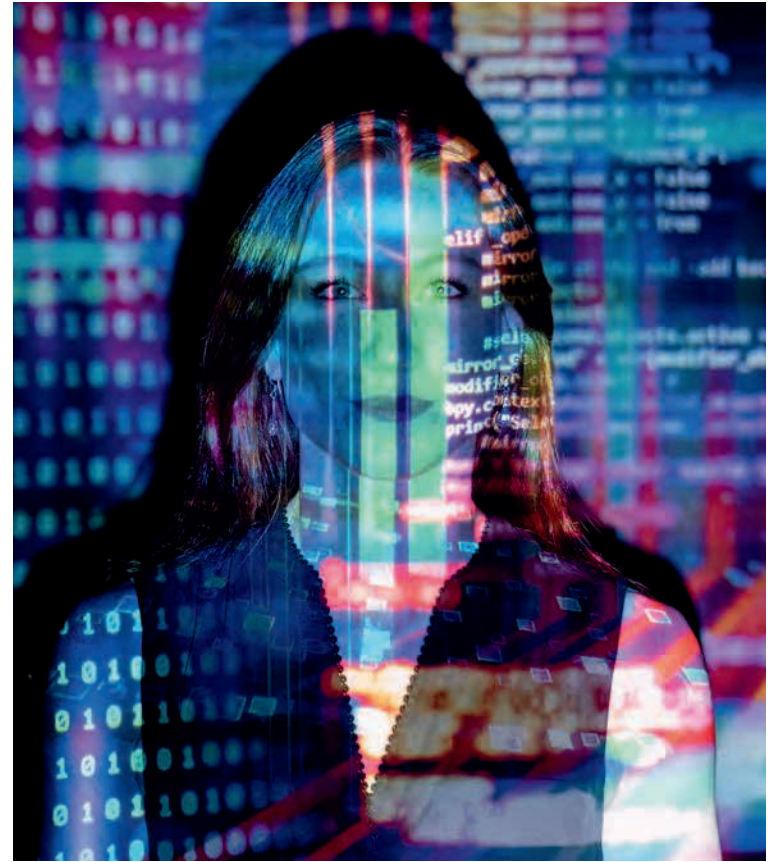

Just a few months later, the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia approved the university's new bachelor's degree program in coastal & marine sciences, making W&M Virginia's first public university to offer such an undergraduate degree.

W&M launches Vision 2026 strategic plan

During William & Mary's 2022 Charter Day ceremony, President Katherine A. Rowe launched the university's Vision 2026 strategic plan with three aims – to expand the university's reach, to educate for impact and to evolve to excel – and four areas of focus: data, water, democracy and careers. In focusing on those, the university is drawing on distinct strengths of the William & Mary community in areas where the university already has clear expertise and a competitive advantage in addressing grand challenges. Rowe offers regular updates on progress being made under the plan, including the establishment of the Batten School of Coastal & Marine Sciences and the School of Computing, Data Sciences & Physics, the implementation of the Better Arguments curriculum and an impressive 86% increase in support for internship opportunities from 2023 to 2024. Details are available at www.wm.edu/vision2026.

Alma Mater of Innovation

Throughout its history, William & Mary has evolved to answer the needs of our nation — leading the evolution of the liberal arts and sciences at key moments of transformation. The next chapter of innovation is underway, as the university responds to rapid changes in research and learning by establishing a school joining departments and programs of computer science, data science, applied science and physics.

The William & Mary Board of Visitors voted unanimously in November 2023 to approve a new administrative structure for the four academic units. In July 2024, the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia approved. William & Mary's School of Computing, Data Sciences & Physics will launch in fall 2025 with Douglas C. Schmidt '84, M.A. '86 as its inaugural dean. Through the new school, William & Mary will expand its focus on data fluency, facilitating data-intensive research while further enhancing students' career prospects in sectors that are driving economic growth.

#1 for Study Abroad

In November 2024, William & Mary was once again the top ranked public university in the nation for study-abroad participation, a spot it has claimed 11 times over the last 16 years. The university offers more than 45 W&M faculty-led study abroad programs and internships along with hundreds of other global exchange opportunities in more than 55 countries.

The university also ranks 14th nationally among all doctoral-granting universities — public and private — in long-term duration of study abroad. The ranking was part of the Open Doors 2024 Report on International Educational Exchange released by the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs and the Institute of International Education.

In addition to offering students a broad selection of study-abroad opportunities through the Global Education Office, William & Mary's Reves Center for International Studies also provides study-abroad scholarships as one of many efforts to reduce financial barriers.

Year of the Environment

In February 2025, William & Mary launched the Year of the Environment to celebrate William & Mary's commitment to conserving the environment and the communities that depend on its health and resilience. The yearlong observance focuses on advancing sustainability efforts on campus and furthering William & Mary's environmental impact around the world.

The launch built on momentum from two historic gifts: a $50 million gift from Dr. R. Todd Stravitz '82 and the Brunckhorst Foundations that will provide full tuition support for students pursuing the new bachelor's degree in coastal & marine sciences at W&M's Batten School & VIMS, and a $100 million gift from Jane Batten HON '17, L.H.D. '19 to establish the Batten School of Coastal & Marine Sciences.

William & Mary has made long-term commitments to sustainability in its strategic plan and Climate Action Roadmap. Multiple initiatives are underway: from academics to operations, and from energy use to stewardship of its beautiful campus.

W&M marks Centennial of Asian and Asian American students

In 1921, Pu-Kao Chen '23 traveled from Shanghai, China, to enroll at William & Mary, becoming the university's first Asian student. Twelve years later, Hatsuye Yamasaki '37 became the first known Asian American woman to attend the university. Generations of Asian and Asian American students, faculty and staff followed — and created their own firsts — over the next 100 years. William & Mary marked that anniversary with a commemoration beginning in the spring of 2021. During the centennial, a new historical marker was unveiled near Zable Stadium to honor Arthur “Art” Matsu '27.

Brafferton Tercentennial

During William & Mary's 2023 Charter Day ceremony, the university launched a yearlong commemoration of the 300th anniversary of the Brafferton Indian School, which was constructed in 1723. Leaders and representatives from nine tribal communities attended the event, and Chief Lynette Allston of the Nottoway Indian Tribe provided a reflection on the Brafferton Indian School. The Brafferton Initiative, which was led by the Office of Strategic Cultural Partnerships, included both campus and community events, outreach and partnership with tribal communities, faculty initiatives and a renewed look at how the university can share a more complete history of the Brafferton Indian School.

Hearth: Memorial to the Enslaved

In May 2022, William & Mary dedicated Hearth: Memorial to the Enslaved, which honors the people whom the university enslaved over the course of 172 years. The dedication ceremony took place during the university's inaugural Black Alumni Weekend. Many of the people who attended had played a role in the creation of the memorial, including students and faculty who laid the groundwork for research into slavery at W&M. A month later, the memorial served as the site for the university's first in-person Juneteenth celebration. In March 2023, a handcrafted vessel that holds the fire central to the memorial was dedicated.

Curtain goes up on new performing arts facilities during Year of the Arts

Performing arts debuted a bright, modern new home at William & Mary in fall 2023. The university's new Fine and Performing Arts Complex, brought students new opportunities to collaborate with world-class theatre, dance and music faculty. Inviting spaces for learning, research and performance are spread throughout the renovated and expanded Phi Beta Kappa Memorial Hall and the new Music Arts Building. The venues serve both the campus and regional communities, coming to life in the university's Arts Quarter.

A dedication took place during 2023's Homecoming & Reunion Weekend. The event included the naming of PBK's main stage to be the Glenn Close Theatre in honor of actress Glenn Close '74, D.A. '89, H.F. '19. The dedication also helped usher in W&M's Year of the Arts, which highlighted the importance of arts education in the 21st century and the role that the arts play in W&M's educational experience. The year, which was extended through the end of 2024, featured a variety of performances, exhibitions and other events. Shortly after the year's conclusion, William & Mary opened the renovated and expanded Muscarelle Museum of Art at The Martha Wren Briggs Center for the Visual Arts and hosted an exhibition featuring rare sketches by Michelangelo.

YEAR OF THE ARTS

W&M women's basketball team makes first 'Big Dance'

The William & Mary women's basketball team, led by W&M head coach Erin Dickerson Davis, made history in spring 2025 with a storybook run to the CAA Championship and its first trip to the Big Dance.

The excitement began as the team took the CAA championship title with a 66-63 win over Campbell. After trailing by 14 in the first quarter and still facing a 13-point deficit late in the third, the team came back to lock in the university's first appearance in the Big Dance.

In a First Four contest televised nationally by ESPN2, William & Mary took on fellow 16 seed High Point and won, 69-63, claiming the university's inaugural win in the Big Dance. William & Mary next faced top-seeded Texas in that team's home arena. Although the team lost the game, they celebrated their achievements as a program that is clearly on the rise.

Convocation

Continuing a tradition that was reinaugurated during William & Mary's tercentenary in 1993, William & Mary begins each fall with Opening Convocation to celebrate the start of the academic session.

On the first day of classes, faculty, staff and students gather at the Sir Christopher Wren Building to signify the beginning of the academic year and to officially welcome the incoming class.

At the conclusion of the ceremony and the tolling of the Wren Building bell, the president leads the new students in a special procession from the Wren Yard to the Wren portico, where the new students are warmly welcomed by current members of the faculty, staff and student body waiting in the Wren courtyard. A party with live entertainment follows in the Sunken Garden.

Homecoming

Every October, William & Mary alumni flock to Williamsburg to celebrate and reconnect with classmates and their alma mater. Members of the Tribe, young and old, enjoy four days of parades, academic forums, parties, football and many other events.

Raft Debate

Some William & Mary traditions are patently strange (just the way we like them). Consider the Raft Debate, a rhetorical royal rumble between faculty members representing different academic disciplines at the university. Here's the set-up: Four survivors of a shipwreck are stranded on a deserted island with only one tiny raft. Each must convince the audience that his or hers is the most worthy discipline to bring back to civilization. What follows are wildly theatrical appeals by otherwise normal professors and lots of semi-civil name-calling. The audience picks the winner by the volume of its applause.

Yule Log ceremony

Right before students take off for Winter Break is the Yule Log ceremony. On a chilly Williamsburg night, the whole student body squeezes into the Wren courtyard, where festive “cressets” (wood-burning torches) warm the crowd. The students are treated to live holiday music and student speeches explaining a diverse range of holiday traditions. The climax is when the university president takes the stage to read a story selected by the President’s Aides. Afterward, frozen students pile into the Great Hall to toss ceremonial sprigs of holly into the Yule Log fire for good luck. Then it’s hot cider and sugar cookies for everybody.

Charter Day

February brings the annual celebration of William & Mary's Royal Charter — think “Happy Birthday William & Mary.” Charter Day features speakers of note, along with the distribution of honorary degrees and prestigious awards to students, faculty and alumni. In recent years, the weekend has also included a comedy show, sponsored by Alma Mater Productions and the Student Assembly.

One Tribe One Day

William & Mary's One Tribe One Day is more than a day of giving back and paying it forward. It's a beloved annual tradition and a record-breaking, impact-making, community-gathering day of Tribe Pride around the globe. Every gift to any area, no matter the size, makes a difference and helps unlock university-wide giving challenges that increase the impact of each gift. Since its inception, OTOD has inspired more than 63,000 donors to give a total of $27.9 million to William & Mary in support of 1,000+ areas across campus. Donors from all 50 states and countries across the globe have participated in the day.

Last Day of Classes

On the last day of classes in the spring, graduating students are invited to ring the ceremonial Wren bell.

Commencement Weekend: The Candlelight Ceremony

The Thursday of Commencement weekend, graduating students are invited to gather for a candle-lighting ceremony. Tradition holds that the seniors select three speakers — one faculty member, one administrator and one fellow student — each of whom has had a close relationship with the class during their years at William & Mary. The atmosphere is fun and nostalgic, culminating in illuminating and raising the candles together as a graduating class. And, of course, with candles aloft, they sing the Alma Mater.

The Walk Across Campus

William & Mary's unique Commencement completes the symbolic circle begun by the Opening Convocation ceremony. Four years after they emerged from the Wren portico to the cheers of their classmates, the graduating students now return in the opposite direction, passing back through the portico dressed in their full graduation regalia. From there, they continue their "Walk Across Campus" to Zable Stadium, where Commencement ceremonies are held.

COMMENCEMENT PRIZES AND AWARDS

THE LORD BOTETOURT MEDAL

CONNIE G. RYU

The Lord Botetourt Medal is presented each year to the undergraduate student who has most distinguished him or herself in scholarship during their time at William & Mary. In 2025, this singular honor is awarded to CONNIE G. RYU.

Ms. Ryu graduates with a Bachelor of Science degree in biology, with a minor in sociology. She accomplished a perfect 4.0 GPA. In the words of an advisor, “The most amazing thing about Connie is her goodness and use of her scholarship to encourage and uplift others.”

A Monroe Scholar who made the Dean’s List every semester, Ms. Ryu plans to attend medical school after graduation. Colleagues and advisors praised her “keen inquisitive personality” and courage to research “something completely new.”

Ms. Ryu has been a near-constant presence in the research lab. Mentored by Dr. Shantá D. Hinton, she investigated the pseudophosphatases MK-STYX and STYXL2. Ms. Ryu trained other lab members in tissue culture, transfection, Western blotting, immunoprecipitation and phosphatase activity assays. She presented her research at Cell Bio 2024 and the American Society for Biochemistry and Molecular Biology 2025 Annual Meeting. Already the co-author of two manuscripts, Mr. Ryu anticipates submitting her own manuscript for publication.

In summer 2023, Ms. Ryu received a competitive national internship with Magee-Womens Research Institute & Foundation. She conducted independent clinical research and shadowed physicians in maternal-fetal medicine, pathology, reproductive endocrinology and infertility.

Ms. Ryu supports her peers as an undergraduate TA for molecular biology and a confidential advocate for The Haven. She advocates for patients and works as a medical scribe at the Lackey Clinic. She led the Korean American Student Association, wrote for the William & Mary Alumni Magazine and actively participated in Alpha Phi Omega Nu Rho. The Korean American Scholarship Foundation awarded her the Korean Honors Scholarship for her academic achievements and service to others.

Nominators described Ms. Ryu as humble and kind. When asked about the best part of her winter break, she said, “I’ll be happiest to reconnect with my younger brother... He teaches me so much.” William & Mary is proud to honor Connie Ryu for her excellence in scholarship and character.

THE JAMES FREDERIC CARR MEMORIAL CUP

SARAH L. DEVENDORF

The James Frederic Carr Memorial Cup was established in honor of a William & Mary student who served with distinction in the First World War and lost his life before he could return to graduate. The award recognizes the student who best exemplifies character, scholarship and leadership. The recipient of the 2025 Carr Memorial Cup is SARAH L. DEVENDORF.

A distinguished scholar, Ms. Devendorf pursues excellence in all areas of her life. She graduates with a bachelor’s in government and history and a remarkable 3.9 GPA. Ms. Devendorf researched human rights with the Global Research Institute and has interned with Lawyers Without Borders, OpenSecrets, the Brookings Institution, a U.S. Senator and a state legislator. She was one of 13 undergraduate students invited by the Pulitzer Center to interview vulnerable communities for a long-form article.

In January 2025, Ms. Devendorf assisted Professor C. Lawrence Evans in evaluating a U.S. House of Representatives New Member Seminar. She met with congressional staff and wrote brief, professional summaries of their conversations. Congressional Research Service leadership, as well as freshmen lawmakers and their spouses, “raved” about her maturity and intelligence.

As a Spotswood Society member, Ms. Devendorf supported the historic Sir Christopher Wren Building. She served as vice president of the Virginia Gamma Chapter of Mortar Board and vice chair of William & Mary’s Conduct & Honor Advisors Program. She also held leadership roles at the Flat Hat, on the Media Council and on the Undergraduate Admissions Arts Panel.

Ms. Devendorf’s trailblazing talent has garnered widespread praise at William & Mary and beyond. She was recognized with the A. Joseph Jay Award for Service in Support of Our Community’s Values, the Cypher Award and the Carl A. Fehr Scholarship. She is a member of Pi Sigma Alpha, Phi Beta Kappa and Omicron Delta Kappa.

Peers and advisors praise her poise, work ethic and commitment to supporting others. As one nominator put it, Ms. Devendorf is “deeply invested in the intellectual development of those around her, always encouraging discourse and deeper understanding.” William & Mary proudly honors Ms. Devendorf with the Carr Memorial Cup for her integrity, leadership and curiosity.

THE THATCHER PRIZE FOR EXCELLENCE IN GRADUATE AND PROFESSIONAL STUDY

GRACE D. MOLINO

The Thatcher Prize was created in honor of the 21st Chancellor of William & Mary, Margaret, The Lady Thatcher. The award is presented annually to recognize an outstanding student in graduate or professional study. The winner is selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character and service. The recipient of the 2025 Thatcher Prize is GRACE D. MOLINO.

At the W&M Batten School & VIMS, Dr. Molino studied how rising sea levels convert coastal forests to salt marshes in the Chesapeake Bay. She completed coursework at the William & Mary Law School and published seven first-author journal articles.

As a Hollings Scholar with the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, Dr. Molino partnered with northeastern communities impacted by climate change and sea level rise. As a Fulbright Scholar, she worked with the Building with Nature Initiative at Delft University in the Netherlands to improve dike safety standards. A Dean's Fellowship recipient, Dr. Molino is known as a rising star in coastal and marine sciences.

One nominator wrote that Dr. Molino "is a rare student that combines machine learning and satellite imagery with muck boots and sediment cores." Her research connects geology, ecology, marine science and environmental policy. She engages a wide array of audiences, including residents of Tangier Island, farmers on the Eastern Shore and scientists in the American Geophysical Union. Members of the Virginia Marine Resources Commission asked her to brief them on her marsh migration research.

Dr. Molino's dissertation identified 300,000 – 500,000 acres of land in the Chesapeake region that will convert to marsh in the next century and found that agricultural land converts faster than forestland. Drawing on her unique background in law and policy, she explored how state-level policies influence hard decisions about whether to abandon or defend property in the face of sea-level rise.

Dr. Molino was the first student to co-teach Coastal Habitats of North Wales, a William & Mary study abroad field course. She has advanced belonging at the Batten School/VIMS, mentored students conducting undergraduate research and engaged with the VIMS Graduate Student Association. She also served as the President of the VIMS Chapter of Women in Marine Science.

THE ALGERNON SYDNEY SULLIVAN AWARD

The Sullivan Award, given in the form of a medallion, is in recognition of influence for good, taking into consideration such characteristics of heart, mind, conduct and demonstrating a spirit of love and helpfulness to others. It is awarded each year to two individuals from the graduating student body and to a third person who has a close relationship to the university.

ALLISYN N. LAM

ALLISYN N. LAM uses her entrepreneurial spirit to advance flourishing in her communities. One nominator writes that she approaches service with the question: "How can we make this happen?"

An aspiring physician, Ms. Lam graduates with a bachelor's degree in neuroscience. As the president of Food for All at William & Mary, she provided resources to faculty, staff and students who face food access issues. Under Ms. Lam's leadership, Food for All distributed 2,500 meals to more than 200 individuals in just over a year.

Ms. Lam's compassion, energy for service and empathy for others are contagious. Strongly committed to creating "lasting change," Ms. Lam created an infrastructure to ensure Food for All will continue to have a lasting impact at William & Mary beyond her graduation. In honor of her dedication, Ms. Lam was presented the 2023 President's Award for Service to the Community.

Ms. Lam helped lead a statewide student coalition to address food insecurity on college campuses in Virginia. She welcomed members of the General Assembly to William & Mary, encouraged students across the state to do the same and traveled to Richmond to meet with legislative staff. The coalition's efforts resulted in bipartisan passage of the Virginia Hunger Free Campus Act, establishing a $500,000 state-funded grant program for campus food pantries.

Ms. Lam's peers, mentors and faculty admire her joy, integrity and courage. She pursues international humanitarian projects with Rotary International, including supplying the Sawua Elementary School in Ghana and bringing water and sanitation to earthquake victims in Turkey.

According to Ms. Lam, "Our degrees come with responsibilities; as the resources of our communities have enabled us to pursue a world-class education, we have been empowered with particular skills that have the potential to give back to others who lack the same access."

THE ALGERNON SYDNEY SULLIVAN AWARD

KYLE C. LEWIS-JOHNSON

KYLE C. LEWIS-JOHNSON has dedicated himself to building community at William & Mary and beyond. An empathetic leader, he distinguished himself as a Sharpe Community Scholar and a Student Assembly senator. Colleagues laud his “willingness to sacrifice his time and energy for the betterment of others.”

Mr. Lewis-Johnson graduates with a bachelor’s degree in chemistry. He helped remove barriers for underrepresented students in STEM and organized mentorship programs and networking opportunities. He created outreach initiatives as a member of the executive board of William & Mary’s chapter of the National Organization for the Professional Advancement of Black Chemists and Chemical Engineers (NOBCChE). At the NOBCChE 51st Conference, Mr. Lewis-Johnson received the Undergraduate Rising Star in Research award, and the W&M Chapter was recognized for K-12 outreach.

Nominators hail his talent for making chemistry “more accessible and engaging” for his peers. A talented tutor, Mr. Lewis-Johnson brings unending patience and encouragement to his work. He has a knack for breaking down complex concepts. The William & Mary Chemistry Department awarded Mr. Lewis-Johnson the Marga Larson Bales Scholarship for his research and emphasis on teaching.

Mr. Lewis-Johnson worked tirelessly to advance inclusivity and belonging on campus and in the surrounding Williamsburg community. As a Sharpe Community Scholar, he passionately advocated on civic issues to create positive change. He skillfully bridged town-gown boundaries and planned on-campus events for the general public with Alma Mater Productions. In the Student Assembly, Mr. Lewis-Johnson consistently sought to improve student experiences across the university.

Mr. Lewis-Johnson’s nominators admire his tenacity. They describe how he brings “enthusiasm, humility and sincere desire to make a difference” to every challenge he meets. His unwavering optimism, compassion and integrity exemplify the heart, mind and conduct of the Sullivan Award.

FATHER KYLE O’CONNOR

FATHER KYLE O’CONNOR, Parochial Vicar and Chaplain for Catholic Campus Ministry at William & Mary, has dedicated his life to uplifting others. He strengthens the university’s community by helping students feel safe and supported. Nominators write that Father O’Connor’s “selflessness, compassion and kindness have left an indelible mark on our community.”

Praised for excellence in leadership, organization and planning, Father O’Connor provides prayer, fellowship and service opportunities. He leads Daily Mass, offers 14 hours of weekly Adoration, sits in Confession for one hour daily and leads three Masses on Sunday to ensure that all students can join regardless of their schedule. He walks with about a dozen students each year in their journey to becoming Catholic. He also participates in Catholic Campus Ministry’s intramural sports teams and sits with students at Sunday Supper.

Among other regular events, he helps organize five yearly retreats and one yearly service trip to Appalachia. During one trip, returning students experienced a serious car accident. Father O’Connor rushed to the scene to pray with and comfort the students. He sat with students in the hospital, “tirelessly caring for everyone.” On his day off, he traveled to Tennessee to visit another student.

Father O’Connor is known among students and colleagues for his calming presence and empathy — as well as his talent for floor hockey and table tennis. His efforts to greet students by name and offer support to anyone who needs it have earned him the affection of this community. One nominator writes, “Treating everyone with dignity like Father Kyle does brings light to the community.”

The Sullivan award is given in honor of Father O’Connor’s generous impact on countless members of the William & Mary community. As a student wrote, “Father Kyle is more than just a faith leader; he’s a mentor and source of hope.”

THE THOMAS ASHLEY GRAVES, JR. AWARD FOR SUSTAINED EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING

The Thomas Ashley Graves, Jr. Award is named for the twenty-third President of William & Mary and recognizes sustained excellence in teaching. The recipient of the award is selected annually by the President from nominations submitted by each of the academic deans.

AIKO KITAMURA

Professor AIKO KITAMURA, Teaching Professor of Japanese Studies, joined the William & Mary Japanese Studies Program as a lecturer in 2007. Committed to quality teaching, devoted to her students and dedicated to optimizing learning environments, she has helped the Japanese Studies Program flourish.

Through varied and dynamic teaching methods, Professor Kitamura expertly uses cultural elements, video clips and activities to bring textbooks to life. Her student-centered approach provides direct and tailored attention to each learner. Professor Kitamura empowers each student to identify and set personal learning goals and chart their own progress toward higher language and intercultural proficiency.

Professor Kitamura's service extends beyond the classroom. Alongside her colleagues, she worked for years to build William & Mary's Japanese Studies major. She has also created the Japanese Book Club, coordinated Shodo performances and served on honors committees. Since 2009, Professor Kitamura has served as faculty advisor for the highly successful Japanese Language House. The Language Houses enrich the university's academic offerings and build long-lasting community through frequent extracurricular activities and cultural events. Professor Kitamura has worked closely with the Japanese House International Fellows and has been deeply involved in its operations and success.

Professor Kitamura is strongly committed to improving students' learning experiences in all instructional settings, including classes taught by Teaching Assistants. Since 2007, Professor Kitamura has supervised Teaching Assistants for Japanese Language courses. Students' evaluations are effusive. Students cherish Professor Kitamura's innovative teaching methods and dedication to fostering belonging. They laud her as an excellent, engaged and passionate instructor who is completely and consistently invested in teaching.

For her profound commitment to student learning, and her service to the William & Mary community, we honor Aiko Kitamura with the 2025 Thomas Ashley Graves, Jr. Award for Sustained Excellence in Teaching.

JOHN STRONG

Colleagues describe DR. JOHN STRONG, CSX Professor of Finance, Raymond A. Mason School of Business, as the "ideal exemplar" of a William & Mary scholar.

In his decades-long career at William & Mary, Professor Strong has distinguished himself as an extraordinary teacher. Keenly attuned to current business practices, he elevates real-world relevance and impact. His students apply fundamental concepts and models to actual business situations through myriad case studies and exercises. Academic leaders recognize Professor Strong for enhancing the business school's commitment to transformative learning.

Students and peers cherish Professor Strong's mentorship. He has won twenty student-selected outstanding teaching awards. He received the Thomas Jefferson Teaching Award in 1993 and the McGlothlin Faculty Teaching Award in 2017. Professor Strong's colleagues note his "huge impact on the Mason School's culture of teaching excellence."

For thirteen years, he held the role of Area Head for Finance and Economics. He served as the Director of the Executive MBA (EMBA) program from 1993 to 1996. He launched the first international residency to China and Southeast Asia. More recently, he has held the role of Faculty Director of the EMBA program. During his tenure, he led a committee to review, recommend and implement a full strategic update for the program. He also introduced a highly distinctive EMBA residency at the W&M Washington Center.

Professor Strong has led and participated in executive education programs, workshops and consulting programs across six continents and 48 countries. This depth of business expertise and experience extends to the classroom and produces a highly unique educational experience for students of all educational and professional backgrounds.

For his enduring dedication to student success, outstanding pedagogy and William & Mary's mission and values, we honor John Strong with the 2025 Thomas Ashley Graves, Jr. Award for Sustained Excellence in Teaching.

THE CHARLES JOSEPH DUKE, JR.
AND VIRGINIA WELTON DUKE AWARD

Annually, an endowment from Charles and Ann Duke makes possible an award to an outstanding employee of the university. The award is given in memory of Mr. Duke's parents for their years of distinguished and loving service to William & Mary. Charles and Ann's daughter, Emily, now represents the family during the annual Duke Award ceremony.

JEFF JOLLY

The “go-to guy” for tech support on campus for 24 years, JEFF JOLLY is cherished by colleagues and students across the university. One nominator writes, “From friends in Building Services to students, vice presidents and coaches, everyone knows Jeff...His larger-than-life personality is as recognizable as his hard work.”

A senior engineer and project manager in University IT, Mr. Jolly plans and leads network hardware updates, assuring connectivity for the whole campus. With thoughtful diligence, he minimizes network downtime during key academic periods to minimize disruption to student learning.

Mr. Jolly executes his work with precision and commitment. He shows up early and stays late. Nominators gush over his “ability to translate technical complexities into actionable solutions.”

In recent years, Mr. Jolly has led the university's technology initiatives in major construction projects. He stewarded the underground cable infrastructure. He frequently partners with Facilities Management, the Office of the University Architect, construction contractors and project managers. Colleagues praise his “solution-oriented mindset” and ability to solve complex challenges.

Mr. Jolly infuses his work with humor, pride and deep care for the William & Mary community. His wit is legendary. He famously welcomes new colleagues with golf cart tours of campus. He is often among the first people new students meet on campus. He walks through first-year residence halls during new student move-in, loudly declaring, “I'm from IT; I'm here to help.” Sometimes, new students and families ask him technology questions, but more often, Mr. Jolly helps assemble beds and explain meal plans — all with characteristic cheer.

Jeff Jolly's joyful and professional service to the William & Mary community exemplifies the ideal set by Charles and Virginia Duke. A colleague stated, “We could not function without the level of support Jeff provides.” He has made William & Mary a “better, and better functioning, place,” and we proudly honor him.

VALUES IN ACTION AWARDS

The Values in Action Award recognizes staff and faculty whose exceptional service exemplifies William & Mary's stated values: Belonging, Curiosity, Excellence, Flourishing, Integrity, Respect and Service.

BRIER ANDERSON

BRIER ANDERSON, the Studio for Teaching & Learning Innovation, scales excellence across the university. Staunchly committed to high-quality, accessible learning, she elevates faculty development and cultivates a culture of continuous improvement. She is known as a leader who lifts as she climbs. Mrs. Anderson created the College Teaching Essentials series. These transformative courses equipped over 100 instructors with foundational teaching skills in the program's first semester. In addition to her instructional design efforts, Mrs. Anderson has advanced belonging across the university and presented on inclusive teaching practices. She contributes to the Inclusive Teaching professional learning series.

ROLANDA FRAZIER

ROLANDA FRAZIER, Dining Services, upholds the values of belonging and flourishing daily. A talented and dedicated employee, she has progressed from cook to production cook to lead cook over the past 11 years. Students look forward to Miss Frazier's warm greetings when they arrive at Sadler Dining Hall. One nominator shared that Miss Frazier is "constantly striving to improve the standards of work and overall environment at Sadler to benefit students and workers." One family even let Miss Frazier know that her attentiveness was among the most impactful reasons their daughter chose to attend William & Mary.

CAROLINE HERATH

CAROLINE HERATH, the Office of Career Development & Professional Engagement, is dedicated to helping students and colleagues flourish. She meticulously researches the best possible opportunities so students can stick the landing. One nominator wrote, "Even when she has a packed advising schedule, she'll make time to meet students or to be an amazing thought partner to her team in the office." A cherished mentor, Mrs. Herath helps her colleagues accelerate toward their professional goals. Another nominator shared, "Caroline is a devoted servant leader, always thinking about others and seeking new ways to grow so she can be a better human, co-worker, and student advisor."

SHERAY PROSSER

SHERAY PROSSER, Facilities Management, exceeds her responsibilities to maintain the female locker rooms in Kaplan Arena and the field hockey center. In addition to keeping these spaces sparkling for student-athletes and coaches, she has made them places of welcome and belonging. She models respect and inspires everyone around her to show courtesy to others. In one poignant example, nominators describe how Ms. Prosser leaves weekly notes for the field hockey team. The team cherishes her kindness, saying they "would be lost without her help and commitment." One nominator eloquently put it, Ms. Prosser is a "beautiful soul that brings light to Kaplan Arena."
